The principal objects of the Committee are;

1. To facilitate, encourage and arrange industrial conferences or meetings to be attended by men of affairs from any or all parts of the Empire in order to discuss questions of common interest with a view to regulating and co-ordinating the conditions of Empire trade and industry.
2. To encourage and facilitate Empire trade and industry by (inter alia) arranging for the reading of papers and delivery of addresses on financial, industrial and trade subjects by authorities before the Institute itself and before Chambers of Commerce, Trade bodies and like institutions in the leading industrial centres, collecting and distributing information, etc.

SPECIAL SERVICES.

The following special services are at the disposal of British men of business, and are used by a large and increasing number of such persons:

- (1) To bring before the notice of persons in the United Kingdom likely to be interested, any British product which is characteristic of or peculiar to any one of the British Possessions.
- (2) To introduce the Raw Materials of the Empire to Manufacturers.
- (3) To find for buyers Overseas, British manufacturers to make goods formerly obtained from Germany and Austria. In some cases the Committee has induced British firms to take up the manufacture of goods formerly not made at all within the Empire.
- (4) To bring the names of persons abroad desiring agencies before British manufacturers.

For firms and persons in Great Britain:

- (5) To supply information in respect to any of the markets of the Empire from the special reports and other sources of information in the records of the Committee. To obtain special information as to the particular requirements of manufacturers in the countries of the Empire.
- (6) To advise manufacturers and others as to peculiarities of packing, language, climate, etc., affecting the sale of particular classes of goods in any of the said countries, and as to the rates, duties, freights, etc., obtaining.
- (7) To put manufacturers in touch with agents and buyers oversea;
and:—
- (8) Generally to take an active part in any movement which has for its object the improvement of commercial relations between the constituent parts of the British Empire.

A full account of the Committee's recent activities will be found upon pp. 40-42 of this Year Book, and booklet explaining its work and objects will gladly be sent on application to HAROLD T. POOLEY, Esq., Royal Colonial Institute, Northumberland Avenue, London, W.C.

ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE.

OBJECTS AND CONSTITUTION.

THE ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE is established to provide a place of meeting for all gentlemen connected with the Colonies and British India, and others taking an interest in Colonial and Indian affairs; to establish a Reading-room and a Library, in which recent and authentic intelligence upon Colonial and Indian subjects may be constantly available, and a Museum for the collection and exhibition of Colonial and Indian productions; to facilitate interchange of experiences amongst persons representing all the Dependencies of Great Britain; to afford opportunities for the reading of Papers, and for holding discussions upon Colonial and Indian subjects generally; to undertake scientific, literary and statistical investigations in connection with the British Empire; and to promote permanent union between the Mother Country and the various parts of the British Empire. But no Paper shall be read, nor any discussion be permitted to take place, tending to give to the Institute a party character.

MEMBERSHIP.

The membership comprises Resident Fellows (i.e., resident in the United Kingdom); Non-resident Fellows (i.e., resident outside the United Kingdom). To these have lately been added Associates, a connection which is open to either sex, but which is restricted for the present, as regards Men Associates, to the United Kingdom. Resident Fellows pay Entrance Fee £3 and Subscription £2. Non-resident Fellows pay Entrance Fee £1 1s. (which is increased to £3 when taking up permanent residence in the United Kingdom, except for those Fellows of more than fifteen years standing or upwards), and Subscription £1 1s. (which is increased to £2 when in the United Kingdom for twelve months). Associates pay no Entrance Fee; Subscription £1. Resident Fellows may compound for life at £20, or after five years' Annual Subscriptions of £2 on payment of £15. Non-Resident Fellows may compound for life at £10, or after the payment of twenty or more Annual Subscriptions on payment of £5. Associates may compound for life at £10.

LIBRARY.

The Library, already containing 107,241 volumes, is the finest of its kind in the world, and now includes a separate Law Library and a Parliamentary Library which are extensively utilised by visitors from all parts of the Empire. Fellows may borrow books from the Library.

NEWSPAPERS.

The Newspaper Room likewise contains a unique collection, having on its stands and tables some 916 newspapers, magazines and other periodicals from all quarters of the Empire.

THE CIVIL SERVICE SUPPLY ASSOCIATION

LIMITED.

ESTABLISHED 1866.

The leading principle of this Association is to study the interests of the consumer by supplying

THE BEST GOODS AT THE LOWEST POSSIBLE PRICES.

The Association was the pioneer of "Stores Prices," and in quality, measure and price its goods cannot be surpassed. Although the "tied price" system compels the Association to sell certain proprietary articles at fixed prices, there are many articles of the Association's own brands which can only be obtained at its Stores, and which fully equal rival proprietary articles in quality, whilst the "C.S.S.A." brands are incomparably lower in price. During the season FREE COMPLIMENTARY TICKETS may be obtained by all Colonial or Foreign Visitors, on application to the Secretary at the Stores of the Association.

STEPPING STONES

Halifax.—Capital of Nova Scotia, the apple province and land of Evangeline.

St. John, New Brunswick.—The "new city" that rose from the ashes of the great fire of 1877. Here is the wonderful reversible cataract due to the tremendous tides, and here also is one of the busiest ports on the Atlantic.

Quebec.—Queen city of North America, throned on a lofty crag commanding the St. Lawrence. Owing to its picturesque situation, its old-world streets, and its historic memories, Quebec has many visitors. Here is the Château Frontenac, the most picturesque hotel in Canada.

Montreal.—Commercial capital of Canada and headquarters of the Canadian Pacific—on the site of the ancient Indian village of Hochelaga. Now half-French, half-English in population, with magnificent wharves and imposing public buildings, banks, churches, &c. Stay at the Place Viger Hotel.

Ottawa.—Political capital of Canada, and picturesquely situated at the junction of the Ottawa and Rideau Rivers. The centre of a great lumber industry.

Toronto.—Capital of Ontario, centre of busy industries and fragrant orchards. Situated on Lake Ontario, Toronto is a convenient starting-place for Niagara, Muskoka, or the Canadian Pacific Steamship services on the Great Lakes.

Niagara.—With its famous falls, the wonder of the world.

Muskoka.—A picturesque cluster of lakes clothed with innumerable islands. This is one of the chief summer resorts in America.

Sault Ste. Marie.—On the "Soo," with its famous locks and rapids, the junction for the Soo Line and centre of a great sporting district. The "Soo" is also reached by rail via Sudbury, along a branch of the Canadian Pacific, which passes through one of the best fishing and hunting districts in Canada.

Missanabie, Jackfish and Nipigon.—North of Lake Superior, and on the main line to Fort William, are also starting-points for fishing expeditions.

Fort William and Port Arthur.—The twin cities at the head of Lake Superior are the outlet for the gigantic harvests of the great Canadian West.

Winnipeg.—Is the capital of Manitoba, and commands the trade of the fertile prairies—a city of imposing appearance and great wealth, with the fine hotel—the Royal Alexandra.

ACROSS CANADA.

Portage la Prairie, Brandon, Indian Head, Regina, Moosejaw, Swift Current, and Medicine Hat.—Are typical prairie towns, bustling, ambitious, and already well on the road to abundant prosperity. Wheat is king from Winnipeg to Calgary.

Calgary.—The most prosperous town in Southern Alberta; is called the city of the foot-hills, owing to its proximity to the Rockies. New Canadian Pacific Hotel Palliser recently erected. Here is the great 3,000,000-acre irrigation scheme of the Canadian Pacific. Land on this irrigation block is sold to settlers on the instalment system. Calgary is directly connected by rail with Edmonton, the capital of the North-West, which is also directly connected with Winnipeg via Saskatoon and Wetaskiwin. A branch line connects with Lethbridge and Macleod.

Banff.—The tourist capital of the Canadian Rockies, with its splendid Banff Hot Springs Hotel. Here is the Canadian National Park, with its herds of buffaloes.

Lake Louise.—Is the station for Lake Louise, considered by many to be the loveliest spot in Canada. The Château Hotel is the most convenient point from which to visit the Lakes in the Clouds.

Field.—In the Kicking Horse Pass, has another favourite hotel, and is the best point from which to reach Emerald Lake and the magnificent Yoho Valley and the Takkakaw Falls 1,200 feet in height.

Golden.—For the Columbia Valley and Lake Windermere, the new tourist playground.

Glacier.—Is reached after passing through the tremendous scenery of the Rogers Pass, and is in the Selkirk Mountains. It lies under Mount Sir Donald, and is in full view of the snowy Hermit Ranges.

Revelstoke.—Is the junction for the Arrowhead Lakes, down which one may take steamer for the mining and fruit-growing districts of Southern British Columbia and the Kootenays. These can also be reached by the Crow's Nest Pass.

Sicamous.—Is the junction for the fertile Okanagan Valley, the centre of a fruit-growing district.

Kamloops.—Is also rich in orchards.

Vancouver.—Is the Pacific terminus of the Railway, and is rapidly becoming the chief port on the Pacific coast. Here, again, is a fine hotel belonging to the railway company. Steamers connect with Vancouver Island and especially Victoria.—The political capital of British Columbia, and one of the most delightful tourist centres in America. The Empress Hotel here spells the last word in luxury. Through Vancouver Island runs the Esquimaux and Nanaimo Railway from Victoria to Alberni.

PREFACE.

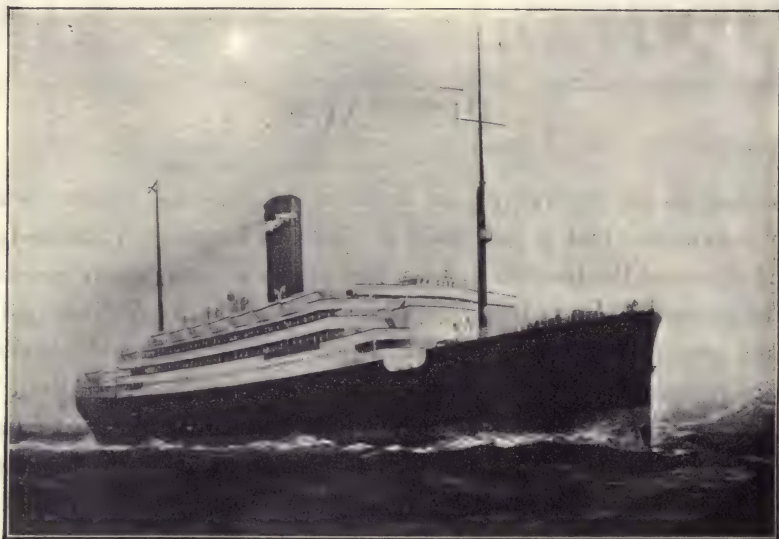

IN presenting to the Fellows of the Institute the fifth issue of the Year Book, the hope is expressed that it may assist in disseminating a better knowledge of the aims and objects of the Institute and the work which is being done in promoting the closer and permanent unity of the Empire. Owing to the largely increased cost of paper and printing it has been decided by the Council, temporarily, to curtail the volume in various ways, viz., by omitting the illustrations, the geographical list of Fellows, the statistical information regarding all parts of the Empire, and also the classified list of the newspapers and magazines which are to be seen in the Institute Building. By this means a considerable economy will be effected. The membership has increased beyond expectation during the past year, and is growing steadily as we go to press. Particulars are given of the numerous activities of the Institute as well as of the competition for the Gold Medal, and of the Prizes for Essays which, in normal times, are offered by the Council to the Universities and Secondary Schools. For the current year, as was the case in 1915, the Council has decided to suspend all these competitions except the last-named.

Fellows are particularly requested to notify all changes in their addresses, so that the monthly Journal and other communications may be forwarded without delay.

H. F. WILSON,
Secretary.

II.—INTRODUCTION.

MORE than a generation has now passed since, in 1868, the Colonial Society was started. The Dominion of Canada had just come into being; and, though not many openly agreed with John Bright that the continuance of the British connection was burdensome to Great Britain and humiliating to Canada, still there was a widely spread undercurrent of feeling that Canadian Confederation was a half-way house to peaceful separation. It was this kind of temper, more dangerous than open hostility, that the Colonial Institute sought to counteract. Most wisely its founders recognised that the best way of going to work was not to set on foot an actively militant political organisation. What was wanted was knowledge: knowledge in England of the boundless resources and true temper of the Overseas Dominions; knowledge in the Colonies of their British kinsfolk, when once one has penetrated the outer crust. The Royal Colonial Institute (as it was named in 1870) became at once a club-house where persons from all parts of the Empire might exchange experiences, and an information bureau, whence the latest and most authoritative facts with regard to the Empire might be brought to the light of day. Starting with the modest number of one hundred and seventy-four members, the Institute so fully justified its existence that by 1880 it had over eleven hundred members. The great danger of such an organisation was that it should be run by men who disapproved of the action of their Colonial Governments, and were out of touch with Colonial public opinion; the Royal Colonial Institute has been careful to draw new blood into its veins, and has never in any way identified itself with any one school of thought regarding Colonial questions. The Papers read in its winter sessions have been a perfect quarry of first-hand knowledge, freely placed at the disposal of the inquirer, whether his purpose be historic, statistical, or practical.

But before the War it might have been asked, now that the Royal Colonial Institute has achieved such success in promoting fuller knowledge, and, on both sides, a very different temper—especially now that its example has been followed by so many Leagues and Societies, has not the time come when, so far as its original purpose was concerned, it might pronounce its nunc dimittis and leave to younger bodies the burden of the fray? It, however, must be remembered that, especially in new countries, the condition of things is always rapidly changing, so that the truth of last year is the falsehood of to-day, and any record of facts and opinions requires constant modification and revision. But what institution could so efficiently carry on this work as the Institute, which in the past had done it so successfully? Moreover, while the general tone of thought regarding Imperial questions was on both sides most satisfactory, and there was everywhere the desire to promote friendly social intercourse, there were still problems connected with the Empire, in the solution of which the Royal Colonial Institute could give a helping hand. It is a melancholy fact that, in spite of mutual goodwill and Colonial preferences, British trade within the Empire has not grown by leaps and bounds. The Empire Trade and Industry Committee, set on foot before the War, has gained new importance from the necessity of looking ahead and facing the problems that will arise with the coming of peace. That the British Empire should speak with a single voice on commercial and trade questions regarding the future settlement is a consummation devoutly to be wished, however difficult of attainment. But in working for this object the Committee has peculiar advantages of which it is making good use.

Of a more modest, but equally useful, character is the work of the Committee in acting as an Information Bureau between buyers and sellers.

With regard to the past, the Committee can claim, amongst other things, that, owing to it, the British consular service has been made available to the Overseas Dominions. But it is to the future that we must look for the full fruits of its work.

Again, there is the difficult subject of emigration. To a great extent indeed before the War this question had been settling itself. It is very striking how in recent years, without State action, the current of general British emigration has been diverted from the United States to the Overseas Dominions. At the same time there are many ways in which State action might be desirable. The Royal Colonial Institute has now a standing Emigration Committee representing both its own members and the leading emigration societies. As was inevitable, emigration has come to a standstill during the War; but there are questions regarding the emigration of ex-service men and their widows and orphans after the War, which have been dealt with during the past year.

In close connection with the subject of emigration is the question of Empire Land Settlement. The visit of Sir Rider Haggard to the Dominions as the honorary representative of the Institute is connected with this branch of its work, and has already met with conspicuous success. A most interesting branch of activity has been the work of the War Services Committee which dealt with some 900 applications from candidates for military and civil employment ranging from 17 to 74 years of age, and was able to find occupation for about 350 of them.

Yet another new departure must be mentioned. Recognising that circumstances connected with the War have brought questions, formerly academic, within the range of practical politics, the Institute, by means of an Imperial Studies Lectures Sub-Committee, is seeking to secure a less superficial knowledge of the true character of the problems awaiting solution. Such problems may be approached from the historical, the constitutional, or the sociological standpoint; and on all these sides there is a recognised demand for light and leading which the Institute is endeavouring to supply, the newer Universities affording a most promising field for such work. This movement, it need hardly be said, in no wise conflicts with the more popular courses of lectures which have for some years been organised by the Colonial Institute.

To further stimulate interest in the Empire and in Imperial problems, the Council usually offers a gold medal for some work of research; and has instituted an Essay Competition for the rising generation at the schools and universities of the Empire. (During the War only the school competition is being continued.) But while the Royal Colonial Institute has been busily at work extending its activities in a practical direction, it has not forgotten its other function of being a storehouse of knowledge. Some of us can speak with personal knowledge and gratitude of the benefit its admirable library has been in pursuit of our studies. Over 107,000 volumes and pamphlets, every one of which relates to the objects of the Institute, are a boon, the value of which it is impossible to exaggerate; especially when they can be consulted under the guidance of a courteous and helpful librarian. It is interesting to note that the Library is now being used by research students of the University of London. A special room has been set apart as a law library, which contains a most valuable collection of statutes, law reports, treaties, &c. In the law library provision is also made for the storage and display of maps relating to all parts of the Empire. To give an idea of the Institute's resources it may be added that during the year 1915 over 80,000 numbers of newspapers and magazines were received and filed.

Considering the benefits of membership it is not astonishing to learn that the Royal Colonial Institute has now nearly eleven thousand Fellows and Associates, and that its growing importance, the widening of its scope, and the increase of its membership have necessitated a great extension of its premises. The house in Northumberland Avenue has been almost entirely rebuilt on a larger area, and "as a result," we are told, "instead of the seven inconveniently small and inappropriate rooms formerly available, there are now twenty-five well-equipped rooms."

These things do not indeed go to the heart of the matter. It is possible for great things to proceed from mean and dingy surroundings, and a fine club-house does not always produce an active spirit; but when, as has been made manifest, the spirit is in the right place, it is surely well that the accessories of comfort and convenience shall be added.

There is one other subject, without mention of which any account of the Royal Colonial Institute would be deficient. Useful as had been the annual volume with its permanent record of the progress made during the year, it was generally recognised that so influential a corporation should possess its own monthly organ, reflecting the various sides of its work. An editor was forthcoming who had both a practical knowledge of the Empire and was a trained littérateur, whose death, during the year 1914, all lovers of the Empire deplored. But successors were not wanting; and though UNITED EMPIRE is still in its youth it has already attained a wide circulation, and few will question the modest claim put forward by the Council that it "has from month to month enabled those interested in the various Overseas Dominions to keep in touch with the more important aspects of Imperial development." Its "war numbers" have been noticeable for well-informed articles dealing with all the phases of the vast encounter. Every month of the great War has served to draw closer together the scattered portions of the Empire and to justify the faith to which the Colonial Institute owes its life and its power. Such, then, being the various grounds on which the Royal Colonial Institute has more than made good the aims of its founders, there is no one who cares for the Empire and the Empire's well-being who will not gratefully repeat "Esto perpetua."

H. E. EGERTON.

III.—HISTORICAL SKETCH.

THE ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE is first and foremost a non-sectarian and non-political organisation which exists for the purpose of stimulating the loyalty of all Britons towards the Empire, and for promoting its closer and permanent unity.

It was founded on June 26, 1868, when a meeting was held at Willis's Rooms, under the presidency of Viscount Bury, to promote the formation of a society which should assume, in relation to the Colonies, a position similar to that filled by the Royal Society as regards science, and the Royal Geographical Society as regards geography. The meeting, which comprised influential representatives of Colonial interests, and members of the Imperial Legislature who had taken a prominent part in the discussion of Colonial questions, unanimously agreed that it was desirable to establish an institution, above all mere party considerations, where persons from all parts of the British Empire might exchange experiences, and where trustworthy information might be imparted to all inquirers. A provisional committee was appointed, which drew up rules—substantially the same as those now in operation—and reported to a general meeting on August 12, 1868, when the "Colonial Society" became constituted by the adoption of such rules for its government and the election of the first President and Council.

A deputation of the Council waited upon His Grace the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, Secretary of State for the Colonies, and the Right Hon. Sir Stafford Northcote, Secretary of State for India, with the object of obtaining their official sanction and support, which were most readily conceded. Those Ministers undertook that the Governors of the several Colonies should be addressed in favour of the Institute, which undertaking was carried into effect by their successors in office, the Right Hon. Earl Granville and His Grace the Duke of Argyll. As a result of this action, a large number of valuable works illustrative of the resources and progress of the Oversea Dominions, Colonies, and India have been added to the library. Numerous contributions have also been received from the Colonial Office and the India Office, and for some years past full particulars of the constitution and objects of the Institute have been published in the Colonial Office List, "on account of the importance of the subject to Colonists generally." The Institute is now officially included in the list of Institutions named in the Colonial Regulations, so that the whole of the Statutes of various parts of the Empire are regularly received.

On March 10, 1869, the inaugural dinner was attended by the Prime Minister (the Right Hon. W. E. Gladstone, M.P.), the Secretary of State for the Colonies (the Right Hon. Earl Granville), and many other distinguished guests, and was regarded as a most successful demonstration in favour of the Colonies and the Unity of the Empire.

The speeches at this banquet are of singular interest to-day. Mr. Gladstone's reminiscences of the "Colonial Department," in which he had served thirty-four years previously; Sir George Cartier's attempt to explain Canadian Nationalism without wounding the susceptibilities of prejudiced Britons and his challenge to the United States as to the freedom of Canada under representative rather than democratic institutions; the reminder of Mr. Hugh C. E. Childers that sea-power and the Colonies are intimately connected, and that the sea is the connecting link and not a barrier between the sons of a sea-going race—all these long-forgotten speeches will repay the attention of the historical student who cares to trace the great dynamic forces of the century to their origin.

In June, 1869, the prefix of the word "Royal" was graciously sanctioned by Her Majesty Queen Victoria. Inconvenience arising from the similarity of the initial letters to those of the Royal College of Surgeons, the name of the Society was, by the vote of a general meeting on March 7, 1870, changed to the Royal Colonial Institute.

In July, 1871, His Grace the Duke of Manchester was elected President, in succession to Viscount Bury, who retired, and in June, 1878, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales was pleased to accept that office, afterwards becoming Patron as King Edward the Seventh, the Duke of Manchester maintaining his connection with the Institute as one of its Vice-Presidents and Chairman of the Council up to the time of his death in 1890, when the office of Chairman of the Council was abolished. On his accession to the throne in 1910, His Majesty the King became Patron, and he was succeeded in the office of President by Field-Marshal H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught. During the year 1909, in view of the great extension of the work of the Institute, it was decided to revive the office of Chairman of the Council, Lieut.-General Sir J. Bevan Edwards, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., being unanimously elected to that office, and Sir Godfrey Lagden, K.C.M.G., to the office of Deputy Chairman. In 1915 Sir Charles Lucas, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., was elected Chairman, and Sir J. Bevan Edwards and Sir Godfrey Lagden both became Vice-Presidents. In the same year, the new post of Travelling Commissioner was created for Mr. J. R. Boosé (who had already visited Canada, South Africa, and Australasia on behalf of the Institute), and he was succeeded in the secretaryship by Sir Harry Wilson, K.C.M.G. Mr. Boosé received the C.M.G. at the New Year in recognition of his long and valuable services to the Institute.

In the year 1912 the Right Hon. Earl Grey accepted the office of President in succession to H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, who was graciously pleased to become Vice-Patron.

In September, 1882, Her Majesty Queen Victoria granted to the Institute a Royal Charter of Incorporation, with perpetual succession and a common seal, in recognition of the fact that since its establishment it had "sedulously pursued the objects for which it was founded," and with a desire of "encouraging a design so laudable and salutary."

For the past forty-seven years the Institute has taken a leading part in the national work of fostering and popularising the great principle of Imperial Solidarity throughout the length and breadth of the British Empire.

DATED 26TH SEPTEMBER, 1882.

Victoria, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, Empress of India, To all to whom these Presents shall come Greeting.

Whereas HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., and HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF MANCHESTER, K.P., have by their Petition humbly represented to Us that they are respectively the President and Chairman of the Council of a Society established in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, and called by Our Royal Authority the Royal Colonial Institute, the objects of which Society are in various ways, and in particular by means of a place of Meeting, Library and Museum, and by reading papers, holding discussions, and undertaking scientific and other inquiries, as in the said Petition mentioned, to promote the increase and diffusion of knowledge respecting as well Our Colonies, Dependencies and Possessions, as Our Indian Empire, and the preservation of a permanent union between the Mother Country and the various parts of the British Empire, and that it would enable the said objects to be more effectually attained, and would be for the public advantage if We granted to His Royal Highness ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., WILLIAM DROGO MONTAGU, DUKE OF MANCHESTER, K.P., and the other Fellows of the said Society, Our Royal Charter of Incorporation :

And whereas it has been represented to Us that the said Society has, since its establishment, sedulously pursued the objects for which it was founded by collecting and diffusing information ; by publishing a Journal of Transactions ; by collecting a

Library of Works relating to the British Colonies, Dependencies and Possessions, and to India ; by forming a Museum of Colonial and Indian productions and manufactures, and by undertaking from time to time scientific, literary, statistical, and other inquiries relating to Colonial and Indian Matters, and publishing the results thereof :

Now know ye that We, being desirous of encouraging a design so laudable and salutary, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion, have willed, granted and declared, and DO by these presents for Us, Our heirs and successors, will, grant and declare in manner following, that is to say :—

1. HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, and HIS GRACE THE DUKE OF MANCHESTER, and such other of Our Loving Subjects as now are Fellows of the said Society, or shall from time to time be duly admitted Fellows thereof, and their successors, are hereby constituted, and shall for ever hereafter be by virtue of these presents one body politic and corporate by the name of the Royal Colonial Institute, and for the purposes aforesaid, and by the name aforesaid, shall have perpetual succession and a Common Seal, with full power and authority to alter, vary, break, and renew the same at their discretion, and by the same name to sue and be sued in every Court of Us, Our heirs and successors, and be for ever able and capable in the law to purchase, receive, possess, hold and enjoy to them and their successors, any goods and chattels whatsoever, and to act in all the concerns of the said body politic and corporate as effectually for all purposes as any other of Our liege subjects, or any other body politic or corporate in the United Kingdom, not being under any disability, might do in their respective concerns.

2. The Royal Colonial Institute (in this Charter hereinafter called the Institute) may, notwithstanding the statutes of mortmain, take, purchase, hold and enjoy to them and their successors a Hall, or House, and any such messuages or hereditaments of any tenure as may be necessary for carrying out the purposes of the Institute, but so that the yearly value thereof to be computed at the rack rent which might be gotten for the same at the time of the purchase or other acquisition, and including the site of the said Hall, or House, do not exceed in the whole the sum of TEN THOUSAND POUNDS. And we do hereby grant Our especial Licence and authority unto all and every person and persons, bodies politic and corporate (otherwise competent), to grant, sell, alien and convey in mortmain unto and to the use of the Institute and their successors any messuages or hereditaments not exceeding the annual value aforesaid.

3. There shall be a Council of the Institute, and the said Council and General Meetings of the Fellows to be held in accordance with this Our Charter shall, subject to the provisions of this Our Charter, have the entire management and direction of the concerns of the Institute.

4. There shall be a President, Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, and a Secretary of the Institute. The Council shall consist of the President, Vice-Presidents, and not less than twenty Councillors ; and the Secretary, if honorary.

5. HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS ALBERT EDWARD, PRINCE OF WALES, shall be the first President of the Institute, and the other persons now being Vice-Presidents and Members of the Council of the Institute shall be the first Members of the Council, and shall continue such until an election of officers is made under these presents.

6. A General Meeting of the Fellows of the Institute shall be held once in every year, or oftener, and may be adjourned from time to time, if necessary, for the following purposes, or any of them :—

(a) The election of the President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and other Members of the Council.

(b) The making, repeal, or amendment of rules and bye-laws for the Government of the Institute, for the regulation of its proceedings, for the admission or expulsion of Fellows, for the fixing of the number and functions of the Officers of the Institute, and for the management of its property and business generally.

(c) The passing of any other necessary or proper resolution or regulation concerning the affairs of the Institute.

7. The General Meetings and adjourned General Meetings of the Institute shall take place (subject to the rules of the Institute and to any power of convening or demanding a Special General Meeting thereby given) at such times as may be fixed by the Council.

8. The existing rules of the Institute, so far as not inconsistent with these presents, shall continue in force until and except so far as they are altered by any General Meeting.

9. The Council shall have the sole management of the income, funds, and property of the Institute, and may manage and superintend all other affairs of the Institute, and appoint and dismiss at their pleasure all salaried and other officers, attendants and servants as they may think fit, and may, subject to these presents and the rules of the Institute, do all such things as shall appear to them necessary and expedient for giving effect to the objects of the Institute.

10. The Council shall once in every year present to a General Meeting a report of the proceedings of the Institute, together with a statement of the receipts and expenditure, and of the financial position of the Institute, and every Fellow of the Institute may, at reasonable times to be fixed by the Council, examine the accounts of the Institute.

11. The Council may, with the approval of a General Meeting, from time to time appoint fit persons to be Trustees of any part of the real or personal property of the Institute, and may make or direct any transfer of such property necessary for the purposes of the trust, or may at their discretion take in the corporate name of the Institute Conveyances or Transfers of any property capable of being held in that name. Provided that no sale, mortgage, incumbrance or other disposition of any hereditaments belonging to the Institute shall be made unless with the approval of a General Meeting.

12. No Rule, Bye-Law, Resolution, or other proceeding shall be made or had by the Institute, or any Meeting thereof, or by the Council, contrary to the General Scope or true intent and meaning of this Our Charter, or the laws or statutes of Our Realm, and anything done contrary to this present clause shall be void.

In Witness whereof We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

Witness Ourselves at Our Palace at Westminster, the Twenty-sixth of September in the Forty-sixth year of Our reign.

By Her Majesty's Command.

CARDEW.

RULES.

Corrected up to the Annual Meeting of Fellows,
May 10, 1916.

OBJECTS AND CONSTITUTION.

1. THE ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE is established to provide a place of meeting for all gentlemen connected with the Colonies and British India, and others taking an interest in Colonial and Indian affairs ; to establish a Reading-room and a Library, in which recent and authentic intelligence upon Colonial and Indian subjects may be constantly available, and a Museum for the collection and exhibition of Colonial and Indian productions ; to facilitate interchange of experiences amongst persons representing all the Dependencies of Great Britain ; to afford opportunities for the reading of Papers, and for holding discussions upon Colonial and Indian subjects generally ; and to undertake scientific, literary, and statistical investigations in connection with the British Empire. But no Paper shall be read, nor any discussion be permitted to take place, tending to give to the Institute a party character.

2. The Institute consists of Resident, Non-Resident, and Honorary Fellows and (subject as hereinafter mentioned) Associates. A Resident Fellow is a Fellow who has his permanent home in the United Kingdom. A Non-Resident Fellow is a Fellow who has his permanent home outside the United Kingdom.

3. The Institute shall not make or distribute any gift, dividend, division, or bonus, in money, unto or between any of its Fellows.

4. The government of the Institute, and the management of all its concerns, are entrusted to the Council, subject to the Rules of the Institute.

5. Every Resident Fellow shall be eligible to fill any of the offices of the Council. Non-Resident Fellows shall, subject to the provisions of the Rules, be eligible to fill the office of Vice-President.

6. The Council shall be chosen from the Fellows, and shall consist of a President, Vice-Presidents, of whom not more than one-third may be selected from Non-Resident Fellows, twenty-four Councillors, a Treasurer, and a Secretary (when honorary). The Council shall have power to fill up any vacancies occurring in the above offices during the interval between the Annual Meetings ; such ad interim appointments to be subject to confirmation at the next succeeding Annual Meeting.

7. A portion of the Council shall retire periodically, viz. the President every second year, and one-fourth, or the nearest number thereto and not exceeding the same, of the Vice-Presidents, and one-eighth, or the nearest number thereto and not exceeding the same, of the Councillors every year in rotation ; the names of those so retiring to be previously announced by the Council, as hereinafter provided. The President and Vice-Presidents so retiring shall be eligible for re-election, but the retiring Councillors shall not be eligible for re-election till one year shall have elapsed.

8. The Vice-Presidents and the Councillors to retire in any year shall be those who have been longest in office. As between two and more who have been in office an equal length of time, the Vice-President or Councillor, as the case may be, to retire, shall be determined by lot. The length of time a Vice-President or Councillor has been in office shall be computed from his last election. In the case of Non-Resident Vice-Presidents, the Council may, if they think it advantageous or desirable, exempt any such Non-Resident Vice-Presidents from such retirement by rotation, but this shall not affect the total number of retirements during any one year.

9. If any Councillor shall fail to attend the Meetings of the Council for six consecutive calendar months, except by leave of the Council, the office of such Councillor shall thereupon become vacant.

ADMISSION, &C., OF FELLOWS.

10. Every gentleman, being a British subject, desirous of admission into the Institute as a Fellow, must be proposed and recommended according to the Form No. 1 in the Appendix hereto; and such recommendation must be subscribed by two Fellows at least, one of whom must certify his personal knowledge and approval of such candidate.

11. The certificate thus filled up shall be delivered to the Secretary, and shall be exhibited in a conspicuous place in the Rooms of the Institute for at least one week previous to election, in order that any Fellow objecting to the Candidate may communicate with the Council thereon.

12. The election of Fellows is entrusted to the Council, and the names of those so elected shall be regularly announced from the chair at each Ordinary Meeting.

13. Notice of Election shall be sent within three days to every newly elected Fellow, together with a copy of the Rules of the Institute and a List of the Fellows and Associates. But no election of a Fellow shall be complete, neither shall the name of any person so elected be printed in any list of the Institute, nor shall he be entitled to exercise any of the privileges of a Fellow until he shall have paid his first year's subscription, and his admission fee, or shall have compounded for the same as hereinafter provided for; and unless these payments be made within three calendar months from the date of election, such election shall be void; this time may, however, be extended at the discretion of the Council.

14. Gentlemen resident in the Colonies or India, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, being British subjects, may be elected as Non-Resident Fellows in the same manner as Resident Fellows. Should any such Non-Resident Fellow come to the United Kingdom permanently to reside, he shall be required to pay an admission fee of Three Pounds (less the sum, if any, paid by him as an admission fee on election as a Non-Resident Fellow), and become a Resident Fellow of the Institute; but the last mentioned additional fee shall not be payable by any such Non-Resident Fellow of fifteen years standing or upwards.

15. The Council shall have the power of appointing as Honorary Fellows, Foreigners or Colonists of distinction, or other persons, whose association with the Institute may be considered advantageous; but such Honorary Fellows shall not be entitled to vote nor fill any office in the Institute.

16. Any Fellow may withdraw from the Institute by signifying his wish to do so by letter, addressed to the Secretary at the rooms of the Institute; provided always that such Fellow shall continue to be liable for his annual subscription for the year in which he signifies his wish to withdraw. He shall further continue liable for such annual subscription until he shall have discharged all sums, if any, due by him to the Institute, and shall have returned all books or other property borrowed by him of the Institute; or shall have made full compensation for the same, if lost or not forthcoming.

17. The name of the Institute shall not be used as an address on any circular letter report, correspondence, or document of a business character intended for publication, or any prospectus of a public company, nor shall the Institute be used as a standing address for business purposes.

18. Whensoever there shall appear to the Council to be cause for the removal of the name of any Fellow of the Institute from the List of Fellows, or on receipt of a requisition to that effect with the reasons stated and signed by not less than twenty Fellows of the Institute, the subject shall be taken into consideration by the Council; and if the Members of the Council present in each case and being not less than twelve in number shall by a majority of not less than three-fourths determine to remove such Fellow, his name shall be cancelled in the Register of Fellows, provided that no such resolution shall be acted upon in the case of a Life Fellow unless the resolution of the Council to remove such Fellow shall be confirmed by an ordinary majority at a subsequent Meeting of the Council at which not less than twelve Councillors are present.

FEES AND SUBSCRIPTIONS.

19. Every Resident Fellow shall, on his election, be required to pay Three Pounds as his admission fee, and Two Pounds as his annual subscription for the year ending on the 31st December then next ensuing; or he may compound for his annual subscription, either at his entrance by the payment of Twenty Pounds, or after the payment of five or more annual subscriptions by the payment of Fifteen Pounds.

20. Every Non-Resident Fellow shall, on his election, be required to pay One Guinea as his admission fee, and One Guinea as his annual subscription for the year ending the 31st December then next ensuing; or he may compound for such subscription by the payment of Ten Pounds; or after the payment of twenty or more annual subscriptions by the payment of Five Pounds. Any Non-Resident Fellow who shall have become a Resident Fellow and wishes to compound, may do so by the payment of Twenty Pounds, or, if he shall have compounded as a Non-Resident Fellow, by the payment of the same sum as would have been required from a Resident Fellow, deducting the amount already paid on his compounding as a Non-Resident Fellow.

21. Any Resident Fellow absent from the United Kingdom for the whole of any calendar year shall be liable to pay the Non-Resident Fellow's subscription of One Guinea only, if he shall have given notice in writing to the Secretary of his intended absence.

22. Any Non-Resident Fellow arriving in the United Kingdom, and remaining in the United Kingdom for a period of twelve months, shall pay the Resident Fellow's subscription of Two Pounds per annum (less the amount already paid as a Non-Resident Fellow for that year), and shall continue to pay the same during his temporary stay in the United Kingdom.

23. The Council shall have the power of electing as a Resident Fellow or as a Non-Resident Fellow any person who, being a British subject, has been previously appointed as an Honorary Fellow, and that without his becoming liable to any entrance fee, but he shall upon his election become liable to the appropriate annual subscription and to observe the Rules of the Institute.

24. All subscriptions shall be due and payable on the 1st of January in each year.

25. No Fellow shall be entitled to vote, and no Fellow shall be entitled to enjoy any other privilege of the Institute, so long as he shall continue in arrear. Honorary Fellows are not required to make any payments. The amount of annual subscription to be paid by Fellows absent from England, or joining late in the year, or for a limited time, may be varied by the Council,

26. A List of the Fellows who shall be in arrear at the time of the Annual Balance of the Accounts of the Institute shall be laid by the Treasurer before the Auditors to be certified by them.

27. Once in every year the name of every Resident Fellow in arrear for three months, or, in the case of a Non-Resident Fellow, for twelve months, together with a statement of the arrear, shall be reported to the Council by the Finance Committee, and immediate notice of the same, with an account of such arrear, shall be forwarded to each such Fellow, whose name shall have been so reported, at his last known address. If the arrear be not paid within one calendar month, or, in the case of a Non-Resident Fellow, within twelve calendar months from the date of such notice, or within such further time as the Council may grant upon special cause to them shown, the name of the Fellow so reported, together with a statement of the arrear, shall be suspended in the Rooms of the Institute. If the arrear shall not be discharged within three months after such suspension, the Council may remove the name of such Fellow from the List of Fellows.

COUNCIL.

28. The President, two Vice-Presidents, or any four Councillors, may at any time call a Special Meeting of the Council, and when such Meeting is to be held every Member of the Council residing in the United Kingdom shall be summoned by notice specifying the object thereof.

29. In all Meetings of the Council five shall be a quorum; and all questions shall be decided by open vote, unless a ballot be demanded by any three Fellows present.

30. Minutes of the proceedings of every Meeting of the Council shall be taken during their progress, in a rough book, by the Secretary, or, in case of his absence, by a Fellow present, whom the President or Chairman shall appoint for the occasion; they shall be afterwards copied into a fair Minute-book to be kept for that purpose, read at the next Meeting of the Council, and, when confirmed, signed by the President or Chairman.

31. The Accounts of the Institute shall be from time to time examined by the Council, who shall present and cause to be read to the Annual Meeting a complete statement thereof, together with a report on the general affairs of the Institute during the preceding year.

32. The Council shall, from time to time, publish the proceedings and transactions of the Institute, and accompany them with maps, papers, and other matter, as occasion may require.

33. Each Fellow shall be entitled to a copy of the publications of the Institute; but the mode of distribution shall be decided by the Council.

34. The Council shall, so soon as convenient, establish a Library, Reading-room, and Museum, to which all Fellows, and strangers provided with an order from a Fellow, shall be admitted, under such restrictions as may appear to the Council necessary.

35. The Council may appoint persons, not being Members of the Council, to be salaried Officers, Clerks, or Servants, for carrying on the necessary concerns of the Institute, and may define the duties to be performed by them respectively; and may allow to them respectively such salaries, gratuities, and privileges as to the Council may seem proper; and may suspend or discharge any Officer, Clerk, or Servant from office, whenever there shall seem to them occasion for so doing.

36. The Council may appoint, wherever and whenever it may seem expedient, one or more Fellows or Associates as Honorary Corresponding Secretaries.

COMMITTEES.

37. There shall be six permanent working Committees of Council, namely: 1, Finance and General Purposes; 2, Organisation; 3, Library; 4, House and Social; 5, Emigration; 6, Trade and Industry.

38. Twice at least in each year a Committee of the Council shall examine, in detail, the state of the Household, the Secretary's department, and the degree of care displayed in keeping the Official Books, the Library, the Museum, &c.

39. The Council may refer particular subjects to Committees, and such Committees shall report to the Council the result of their proceedings.

40. All Committees shall be appointed by the Council. The President, Chairman of the Council, and Secretary (when honorary) shall, ex officio, be Members of all Committees.

41. No act, order, or resolution of any Committee shall bind the Institute unless it be done or made by the direction and authority of the Council, or be ratified by them.

42. It shall be competent for the Council to invite the co-operation of persons, not Fellows of the Institute, but who have special knowledge of any particular subject, and to place such persons on any Committee which may be appointed.

PRESIDENT.

43. The President, when present, presides at all Meetings of the Council and of the Fellows. The Council shall annually elect a Chairman of the Council, who shall hold office for one year, and shall be eligible for re-election, and shall preside in the absence of the President. In the absence of the President, and of the Chairman of the Council, one of the Vice-Presidents, or one of the Members of the Council, shall supply the place of the President or Chairman of the Council.

44. It is the duty of the Chairman of the Council to carry out the Rules of the Institute, to see that all the Officers of the Institute, and Members of the Council and of Committees perform the duties assigned to or undertaken by them respectively; to call for Reports and Accounts from Committees and persons; to cause of his own authority, and, when necessary, Special Meetings of the Council and of the Committees to be summoned; and to propose, from time to time, to the Council such measures as shall appear to him conducive to the welfare of the Institute.

45. It is the duty of the Chairman of the Council, conjointly with the Council, to consider and resolve on the names of Fellows who are to be recommended at the Annual Meeting to fill up all vacant offices.

46. When prevented from being present at the Meetings of the Fellows or Council, or from otherwise attending to the current business of the Institute, the Chairman of the Council will be expected to give timely notice thereof to one of the Vice-Presidents, or, in their absence, to some other Member of the Council, or to the Secretary, in order that his place may be properly supplied.

47. The President, or, in his absence, the Chairman for the time being, shall have power to rule and regulate the discussions arising at any Meeting of the Institute.

48. In all Meetings of the Institute and Council, except in the cases otherwise provided for, the decision of a majority of the Fellows voting shall be considered as a decision of the Meeting, the President or Chairman having a casting vote, in addition to his own vote.

TREASURER.

49. The Treasurer has special charge of all Accounts, and shall see to the collection of all sums of money due to the Institute, which, when received, shall be immediately paid to the Bankers of the Institute.

50. In concert with the Secretary, the Treasurer shall keep a List of the Fellows of the Institute, with the name and address of each accurately set forth, which List, with all Books of Account, shall be laid on the table at every Ordinary Meeting of the Council.

51. He shall pay all Accounts due by the Institute, as soon as they have been examined and approved by the Council. But no drafts on its Bankers shall be payable unless signed by two of the Council and countersigned by the Secretary. The Accounts of the Treasurer shall be annually audited by a firm of Chartered Accountants appointed by the Fellows at the Annual General Meeting.

ORDINARY MEETINGS.

52. The Ordinary Meetings shall be held on such evenings, and at such hour, as may from time to time be fixed by the Council.

53. Visitors, if introduced by Fellows, may be present at the Ordinary Meetings, such privilege of introducing Visitors being limited to one only for each Fellow; but should a Fellow desire to introduce a second visitor he can obtain from the Secretary a special card of admission.

54. At the Ordinary Meetings the order of proceedings shall be as follows:—

A. The Minutes of the last Meeting to be read, and, if their accuracy be not questioned by the Meeting, to be signed by the President or Chairman.

B. Election of Candidates to be announced.

C. Papers and Communications to be read and discussed.

55. At the Ordinary Meetings of the Institute nothing relating to its Rules or Management, except as regards the election of Fellows, shall be brought forward, unless the same shall have been announced in the notice calling the Meeting, or be otherwise provided for in these Rules. But the Minute-book of the Council shall be on the table at each Meeting, and extracts therefrom may be read to the Meeting on the requisition of any Fellow.

56. No paper shall be read at any Ordinary Meeting of the Institute unless it shall have been approved of by the Council or by the Committee on Papers and Publications; but this approval shall not be taken as expressing an opinion upon the statements made or the arguments used in such Paper.

SPECIAL MEETINGS.

57. The Council may at any time call a Special General Meeting of the Institute, and it shall be imperative on the Council to summon such Meeting, whenever required in writing so to do by at least twenty-five Fellows of the Institute.

58. A week's notice at least of the time when, and the object for which, every Special Meeting is to be holden shall be sent to every Resident Fellow and to every Non-Resident Fellow of the Institute who has registered an address for service in the United Kingdom; and no other business than that of which notice has been thus given shall be entered upon or discussed at such Meeting.

59. A Special General Meeting, convened as herein provided, may be holden on any one of the days appointed for the Ordinary General Meetings, in which case the special business shall be entered upon immediately after the ordinary business of the day is closed.

60. Thirty Fellows must be present to constitute a Special General Meeting.

ANNUAL MEETING.

61. The Annual Meeting shall be held not later than the month of May.

62. Every Non-Resident Fellow shall be at liberty to register at the Institute an address for service of notices in the United Kingdom.

63. Notice of this Meeting shall be sent to every Resident Fellow and to every Non-Resident Fellow of the Institute who has registered an address for service in the United Kingdom, together with the Voting List referred to in Rule 65, and such notice and Voting List shall be sent as soon after the Ordinary Meeting referred to in Rule 65 as possible, and at least fourteen days before the day of the Annual Meeting. Notice of the Annual Meeting shall also be inserted in two or more English newspapers at least one week before the day of the Meeting.

64. The business of this Meeting shall be to receive and discuss the Annual Report of the Council, to hear the President's Address, to announce the result of the voting for the election of Fellows to fill the vacancies on the Council, and to consider such business as shall be brought forward by the Council or with the sanction of the Council, and which shall have been stated in the notice convening such Meeting.

65. For the purpose of filling the vacancies annually occurring under the provisions of Rule 7 in the Council, the Council shall prepare a List of Fellows, to be nominated by them as suitable to fill the vacancies to occur at the end of the year in the offices of President, Vice-President, Treasurer, and Councillors. The Council shall nominate a sufficient number of Fellows to fill the vacancies for that year, and then there shall be added to such List the name of any Fellow nominated since the last Annual General Meeting in writing by not less than twenty Resident Fellows for the office of Councillor, the consent in writing of such Candidate having been first obtained and forwarded with the nomination to the Secretary at least twenty-eight days previous to the date of the Annual Meeting. Provided always, that no Resident Fellow (who is not a member of the Council) may nominate more than one Fellow for the office of Councillor in any one year. Such List shall be the Voting List for the Annual Election. If no Fellow shall be nominated for the office of Councillor aforesaid in addition to the nominations by the Council, the Fellows nominated by the Council to fill the vacancies in the various offices for that year shall be deemed respectively elected without any ballot being necessary, and the Voting List need not be printed and circulated. If there shall be additional nominations for the office of Councillor the Voting List shall be printed, and a copy thereof sent by post, with all requisite instructions for voting and an official envelope, with the notice convening the Annual Meeting, to every Resident Fellow and every Non-Resident Fellow of the Institute who has registered an address for service in the United Kingdom, and shall be returned in the official envelope to the Secretary, duly filled up and signed by such Fellow, at least three clear days before the Annual Meeting. At the Ordinary Meeting next before each Annual Meeting two Fellows shall be chosen to act as Scrutineers for the purpose of the voting for the ensuing year, one of whom shall be nominated and appointed by and on behalf of the Council, and the other by and on behalf of the Fellows. The Scrutineers so appointed whenever a ballot takes place shall, prior to the Annual Meeting, open the official envelopes received by the Secretary containing the Voting Lists and count the votes and report in writing to the Council the names of those duly elected, together with the names of those, if any, for whom an equality of votes may have been cast. In the event of an equality of votes, the result shall be determined by vote of the Council on the day of the Annual Meeting. Any Voting List on which a Fellow has voted for a number, either more or less, than the necessary number of persons to fill up the vacancies in the offices of President, Vice-Presidents, Treasurer, and Councillors respectively, shall be rejected by the Scrutineers. The notice of Meeting and the Voting List shall be in the form set forth in the Schedule to these Rules, or as near thereto as may be.

66. The chair shall be taken at the hour appointed in the notice of the Meeting, or as soon thereafter as twenty Fellows shall be present.

AFFILIATED MEMBERS.

67. There shall be an additional class of Members to be known as Affiliated Members, who shall pay the same fees and enjoy the same privileges as Non-Resident Fellows of the Institute, with the exception that not being British subjects they cannot be Fellows or be entitled to attend any Annual or Special General Meeting. This class shall include such subjects of Foreign Powers only as are either British-born or children of British parents on both sides. They shall be nominated, recommended and elected in the same manner as Non-Resident Fellows, according to form No. 2 in the Appendix hereto.

ASSOCIATES.

68. Ladies being British subjects wherever resident, and gentlemen being British subjects resident in the United Kingdom, may be admitted to the enjoyment of the following privileges connected with the Institute, but shall not be corporate Members or Fellows. They shall be called Associates and shall be entitled to receive a copy of the Monthly Journal of the Institute; to attend any meeting held for the reading of papers, any Provincial Conferences of the Institute, and the Annual Conversazione, but they shall not be entitled to attend any Annual or Special General Meeting.

69. The election of Associates is intrusted to the Council, and every candidate desiring to become an Associate must be proposed by a Fellow or Associate from personal knowledge according to form No. 3 in the Appendix hereto.

70. Every Associate shall on election and on every succeeding 1st day of January pay £1 as his or her annual subscription for the current year ending on the 31st December next ensuing or may compound for such subscription by the payment of Ten Pounds.

71. The provisions contained in the under-mentioned Rules shall apply to Affiliated Members and Associates, but nothing in this or any other Rule shall confer upon Affiliated Members and Associates any privileges beyond those conferred by Rules 67 and 68. The Rules specially last above referred to are Nos. 13, 16, 17, 18, 25, 26, and 27.

ALTERATION OF RULES.

72. Any alteration in these Rules, recommended by the Council, may be proposed at the Annual Meeting, or may be submitted at any Ordinary or Special Meeting, notice thereof having been given under the provisions of Rule 55, provided that such proposed alteration shall have been exhibited in a conspicuous place in the Rooms of the Institute, for at least one calendar month previous to the Meeting at which it shall be submitted.

73. Any twenty-five Fellows may propose to the Council any new Rule, or the alteration or repeal of any existing Rule, by letter addressed to the Secretary; and, if dissatisfied with the answer of the Council, they may require that their proposition be referred to a Special General Meeting, which the Council shall convene for that purpose within one calendar month after receiving such requisition.

74. No repeal or alteration of any of these Rules, nor addition thereto, shall be considered valid unless concurred in by three-fourths of the Fellows present and voting in each case.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I bequeath the sum of £ to the ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE, Incorporated by Royal Charter 1882, and I declare that the receipt of the Treasurer for the time being of the said Corporation shall be an effectual discharge for the said Bequest which I direct to be paid within calendar months after my decease without any reduction whatsoever, whether on account of Legacy Duty thereon or otherwise, out of such part of my estate as may be lawfully applied for that purpose.

Those persons who feel disposed to benefit the Royal Colonial Institute by Legacies are recommended to adopt the above Form of Bequest.

V.—THE INSTITUTE BUILDING.

In the year 1869 the Institute occupied two rooms in the Westminster Palace Hotel, temporary office room having been previously given in Victoria Chambers by Sir George Verdon, a Member of the Council. In the following year, rooms were acquired at 26, Suffolk Street, Pall Mall East. In 1871 the subject of house accommodation was again considered, and on November 20 of that year three rooms, constituting the first floor of 15, Strand, were engaged at an annual rental of £150. This accommodation was extended by taking in the upper floor of that house on January 7, 1873.

In the year 1883 it was decided to acquire a permanent home for the Institute in lieu of the very inadequate premises hitherto occupied. The lease of a site in Northumberland Avenue—the freehold of which has since been purchased—was secured, and, after a total expenditure of £50,000, part of the present substantial and commodious building was occupied in 1885.

The growing importance of the Institute, the widening of its scope, and increase of its membership rendered extension of the premises in occupation a matter of pressing urgency, and in June 1910 the opportunity was afforded to absorb and consolidate the whole property for the use and benefit of the Fellows.

Under a reconstruction scheme the premises in Northumberland Avenue were almost entirely rebuilt, with the idea of providing more suitable and adequate accommodation. As a result, instead of the seven inconveniently small and inappropriate rooms formerly available, there are twenty-five well-equipped rooms, and the building as it now stands consists of five stories apportioned as follows: In the basement are the parliamentary library, library store rooms, and the Advertisement Department for the Journal, together with lavatories, &c. On the ground floor is the entrance hall, on the left of which is a general room in which smoking is allowed and the daily papers, writing materials, &c., are available. On the right is a reception room in which ladies, as well as the Fellows, can obtain tea and coffee, and meet their friends. On the right again are the hall porter's lodge where Fellows obtain their correspondence, and the general office, in which is the chief clerk's room. On the mezzanine floor is the Secretary's department. The general library occupies the whole of the first floor. On the half-landing between the first and second floors is the law library and map room. On the second floor, occupying the whole of the frontage to Northumberland Avenue and the portion of the Craven Street premises, is the newspaper room, a spacious apartment in which the newspapers, official gazettes, &c., from all parts of the Empire are regularly filed. On the third floor are the Council room and smoking-room, and on the fourth floor the offices of the Empire Trade and Industry Committee (with its Information Bureau), the Travelling Commissioner, and the Organisation Committee, a typewriting room for the use of the Fellows where letters can be dictated and typed, and the housekeeper's quarters. In 1915, with a view to further extensions, the Council acquired the freehold of five houses (Nos. 16—20) in Craven Street, and in the course of this year it is intended to make a considerable part of No. 20 available for the staff of the Institute by the provision of further office accommodation in its basement, first and second floors. Meanwhile the remainder of the property after the necessary repairs will be let to tenants, many of whom have occupied rooms there for several years.

VI.—PRIVILEGES OF FELLOWS, AFFILIATED MEMBERS AND ASSOCIATES.

THE Institute consists of Resident and Non-Resident Fellows, and Associates (who must be British Subjects) and Affiliated Members (subjects of Foreign Powers who must be either British-born or children of British parents on both sides).

(a) FELLOWS.

A Resident Fellow (who has a permanent home in the United Kingdom) pays an entrance fee of £3 and an annual subscription of £2; a Non-Resident Fellow (who has his permanent home outside the United Kingdom) pays an entrance fee of £1 1s. (which is increased to £3 when taking up permanent residence in the United Kingdom) unless he has been a Fellow for a period of 15 years, and an annual subscription of £1 1s. (which is increased to £2 when in the United Kingdom for more than twelve months). Resident Fellows can compound for the annual subscription by the payment of £20, or after five years' annual subscriptions of £2 on payment of £15; and Non-Resident Fellows can compound for the non-resident annual subscriptions on payment of £10, or after the payment of twenty or more annual subscriptions on the payment of £5. Resident and Non-Resident Fellows are elected by the Council, and candidates must be proposed by a Fellow (from personal knowledge) and seconded by a Fellow.

Privileges of Fellows.—The privileges of Fellows, whose subscriptions are not in arrear, include the use of the Institute building, which comprises reading, writing, reception and smoking rooms; a library containing over 101,000 volumes and pamphlets relating to the history, government, trade, resources and development of the British Dominions. The newspaper room contains files of over 800 of the leading journals, magazines, and reviews of all parts of the Empire, which are regularly received and filed. Books may be borrowed—subject to the library regulations—and the correspondence of Fellows may be addressed to the care of the Institute. Fellows have the advantage of a standing postal and registered telegraphic and cable address in the United Kingdom. Fellows are entitled to be present at the annual or any special general meeting, and at the ordinary meetings, when they can introduce one visitor; to be present at any annual provincial conference; to be present at the annual conversazione, and to introduce a lady. The Institute is open on week-days from 9.30 A.M. to 8 P.M. The monthly journal, entitled UNITED EMPIRE, is forwarded to all Fellows whose addresses are known, free of charge.

(b) AFFILIATED MEMBERS.

■ Affiliated Members, who are such subjects of Foreign Powers only as are either British-born or children of British parents on both sides, pay the same fees and enjoy the same privileges as Non-Resident Fellows of the Institute, with the exception that not being British subjects they cannot be corporate members of the Institute or be entitled to attend the annual or any special general meeting.

Affiliated Members are elected by the Council, and candidates must be proposed by a Fellow (from personal knowledge) and seconded by a Fellow.

(c) ASSOCIATES.

■ Ladies who are British subjects, wherever resident, and Gentlemen who are British subjects resident in the United Kingdom, may become Associates of the Royal Colonial Institute on payment of an annual subscription of £1 or may compound for such subscription by the payment of £10.

Privileges of Associates.—Associates, although not corporate members of the Institute, are entitled :—

1. To join with the Fellows in carrying out the aims and objects of the Institute.
2. To receive a copy of the monthly journal.
3. To become members of local committees or branches.
4. To attend all meetings held for the reading of Papers, Imperial Studies and other Lectures, and annual provincial conferences.
5. To be present at the annual conversazione.

Associates are elected by the Council, and candidates must be proposed by a Fellow or Associate from personal knowledge.

VII.—PUBLICATIONS.

ANNUAL VOLUME OF "PROCEEDINGS."

In the year 1869 the first volume of the "Proceedings of the Royal Colonial Institute" was issued. It contained a complete report of the meeting called by public advertisement for the purpose of adopting measures for forming an Association to be called the Colonial Society, at which speeches were made by Viscount Bury (afterwards the Earl of Albemarle), the Right Hon. Chichester Fortescue, M.P., Mr. Leonard Wray, Mr. A. H. Louis, the Marquis of Normanby, Mr. Baillie Cochrane, M.P., Sir H. Drummond Wolff, Mr. Edward Wilson, Mr. W. B. Hume, Sir Charles Nicholson, Mr. Henry Blaine, Mr. Marsh, M.P., and Mr. Selim Jackson. A full account of the proceedings at the inaugural dinner, at which Viscount Bury presided, also appeared in the volume. It was a memorable occasion in view of the fact that a large number of the leading politicians of the time representing the Motherland and the Overseas Dominions, Colonies and India were present, including Mr. Gladstone, Earl Granville, the Duke of Manchester, Sir Bartle Frere, Sir Charles Nicholson, Sir George E. Cartier, Sir Charles Clifford, Sir George Verdon, Sir George Macleay, Captain Charles Sturt, Sir James A. Youl, Mr. W. C. Wentworth, and many other distinguished men. In the report of the inaugural meeting, which was held in the Theatre of the Institution of Civil Engineers on March 15, 1869, Viscount Bury referred at some length to the great increase in the number of scientific and literary institutions which was observable at that time, and emphasised the fact that in his opinion an unnecessary number of institutions differing only slightly from each other in the objects which they professed to aim at, frittered away in the expenses of management funds which, under a system of cordial co-operation, would have been available for more extended and practical usefulness. He claimed that there was no society or body of men in existence in England dealing with the one great object of the Society—the diffusion of accurate information upon Colonial subjects among our countrymen. The first Paper read before the Institute dealt with "The Relations of the Colonies to the Mother Country," which was written by Mr. W. Westgarth, and is a subject that has always occupied a prominent place in the annual programme of the Institute. The Institute, through its publications, has done a vast amount of valuable work, more especially in diffusing accurate information to those in this country desiring to gain a knowledge of the various Overseas Possessions, as well as in shaping public opinion by quiet and steady educational work. The first volume of the "Proceedings" contained 216 pages, and the second 166. In succeeding years the size of the volume of "Proceedings" varied between 400 and 500 pages. The "Proceedings" continued to be issued until the year 1909, when they were replaced by a monthly journal entitled UNITED EMPIRE. Forty volumes in all were issued.

THE "JOURNAL."

In the year 1890 it was decided to issue an additional publication to be known as the "Journal of the Royal Colonial Institute," to be published in advance of and in addition to the annual volume of "Proceedings." The first number appeared in December, 1890, and it was issued during eight months of each year, viz., from December to July inclusive, until December, 1909. The number of volumes issued was nineteen.

"UNITED EMPIRE."

During the year 1909, it having been decided that a review, or magazine, would be one of the most effective means for widening the sphere of influence of the Institute and increasing its popularity and usefulness, a new monthly journal, entitled UNITED EMPIRE, was issued on January 1, 1910, which superseded both the annual volume of "Proceedings" and the "Journal." This review is designed to cover as far as possible the whole field of Imperial activities, and cannot fail to prove of advantage to the trader, manufacturer, and farmer, as well as to officials, politicians and others in all parts of the Empire. The yearly volume averages about one thousand pages, and contains numerous maps, illustrations and diagrams. Its contents comprise the papers read at the meetings of the Institute, articles contributed by recognised authorities on Imperial questions, editorial notes, &c. Special sections are devoted to reviews and notices of books, pamphlets, &c., relating to all parts of the Overseas Empire; to information regarding Empire trade and industry; and to "Round the Empire Notes." The journal, which is not only sent to every Fellow, Affiliated Member and Associate of the Institute, but to Societies, Institutions and Clubs wherever British communities exist, is edited jointly by Sir Harry Wilson, K.C.M.G., and H. T. Montague Bell, Esq.

VIII.—MEETINGS.

THE ordinary general meetings of the Institute at which Papers are read or addresses delivered are held on the second Tuesdays during the months of November to June at 8.30 P.M. Afternoon meetings for the same purpose are also held during the above-mentioned months at 4 P.M. The Papers are often illustrated by lantern slides, and the subjects are so selected as to embrace all parts of the Overseas Empire. A discussion takes place upon all occasions. The evening meetings are preceded by a dinner, which takes place at 7 o'clock, and is attended by Fellows and their friends, both ladies and gentlemen, and so assists in promoting acquaintanceship amongst them. The following Papers were read and discussed during the Session 1915-16:—

"Australia's Stake in the War." By Alfred H. Horsfall, M.B., D.S.O.
(Chairman—The Rt. Hon. Viscount Milner, G.C.B., G.C.M.G.)

"Lights and Lessons of the War." By Sir Gilbert Parker, M.P., D.C.L., LL.D. (Chairman—The Rt. Hon. Earl Grey, G.C.B., G.C.M.G.)

"India and the War." By Lieut.-Colonel Sir Francis E. Younghusband, K.C.I.E. (Chairman—The Rt. Hon. Charles E. H. Hobhouse, M.P.)

"The Outlook for National Unity." By Hon. Sir John McCall, M.D., LL.D. (Chairman—The Rt. Hon. Lord Sydenham, G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E.)

"Empire and Money Market: The Romance of a Three Hundred Years' Alliance." By Ellis T. Powell, D.Sc., LL.B. (Chairman—Sir Charles P. Lucas, K.C.B., K.C.M.G.)

"Cyprus To-Day." By Roland L. N. Mitchell, C.M.G. (Chairman—Sir John Page Middleton.)

"New South Wales under War Conditions." By Hon. B. R. Wise, K.C. (Chairman—Sir Charles Lucas, K.C.B., K.C.M.G.)

"The Empire's Outpost in the South Atlantic." By Major J. Quayle Dickson, D.S.O. (Chairman—Sir William Grey-Wilson, K.C.M.G.)

"The Strategic Geography of the War in relation to the British Empire." By Vaughan Cornish, D.Sc. (Chairman—The Rt. Hon. Lord Sydenham, G.C.S.I., G.C.M.G., G.C.I.E.)

"An Imperial Taxation Problem." By F. W. Young. (Chairman—Frederick Dutton, Esq.)

"The British Empire and the Near East." By J. L. Garvin. (Chairman—Dr. G. R. Parkin, C.M.G.)

"The Necessity for a Common Imperial Economic Policy." By Ben H. Morgan. (Chairman—Sir Owen Philipps, K.C.M.G., M.P.)

"The Aeroplane and its Use in War." By Eric S. Bruce. (Chairman—Evelyn Wrench, Esq.)

"The Evolution of the Empire." By Sir Harry Wilson, K.C.M.G. (Chairman—Dr. G. R. Parkin, C.M.G.)

"The British Imperial Spirit of Sport and the War." By J. Astley Cooper (Chairman—Hon. B. R. Wise, K.C.)

"British Columbia and the War." By Hon. Sir Richard McBride, K.C.M.G. (Chairman—Sir Charles Lucas, K.C.B., K.C.M.G.)

"South Africa and the Empire Problem." By Sir Lionel Phillips, Bart. (Chairman—The Hon. Sir Arthur Lawley, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E., K.C.M.G.)

Christmas Lectures for Young People.

"Canada and Life on the Frontier." By Major the Rev. W. Gordon (Ralph Connor).

"The Wonders of the Antipodes." By W. H. Garrison, F.R.G.S.

"Flying Machines in Peace and War." By Miss Gertrude Bacon.

IX.—THE LIBRARY.

THE library of the Royal Colonial Institute contains one hundred thousand volumes and pamphlets relating to the British Dominions, Colonies, and India, or discussing problems of administration and colonisation. One of the objects for which the Institute was founded was the formation of such a library, but owing to lack of funds little progress was made until the Council were in a position to vote a small annual grant. In 1881, thirteen years after the foundation of the Institute, the library only contained 2,500 volumes, but from about the year 1886 substantial progress was made, so that at the present time it can claim to possess the most complete collection of Colonial literature brought together under one roof. Although many valuable and necessary books were annually purchased, the substantial increase of recent years is largely attributable to donations from the various Overseas Governments and India, the Secretaries of State, the different learned societies, Chambers of Commerce, and other public bodies, and from publishers and authors in all parts of the Empire. Co-operation from these quarters has enabled the Institute to gather together a unique collection which is of great value to students of Empire topics and to all those who are seeking information with regard to the administration, resources, trade, history, law, ethnology, and general conditions of the wide domains under the British flag. The library, the main portion of which is situated on the first floor of the Institute building, is divided into as many sections as there are separate administrative units within the Empire. These sections are further subdivided according to subjects, so that all the books on a given topic are found together on the shelves. To take a specific example: under Canada will be found the books dealing with the history, agriculture, fauna, education, &c., of the Dominion, each contained in separate divisions. The parliamentary library, which contains the Blue-books, parliamentary reports, debates, sessional papers, government gazettes, and general official literature issued by the Overseas Governments, is contained in the basement. In these official publications is hidden away an immense amount of information of value to students of sociology, history, ethnology, &c. Of specially important publications may be mentioned the various geological, archaeological, ethnological, and other surveys, the gazetteers issued by the Indian Government, and the different departmental reports. This room has been fitted with rolling book-stacks which contain long sets of periodicals, agricultural journals, and publications of a similar nature, including a collection of colonial municipal reports, regulations, and mayors' minutes. On the ground floor are some of the proceedings of the learned and literary societies, many of which are of great importance. It is only necessary to name a few, such as the Royal Society of Canada, the Royal Societies of Victoria and other Australian States, the Royal Geographical Societies of the different portions of the Empire, as well as the British and Foreign Geographical Societies, such as those of London, Liverpool, Paris, Lisbon, Vienna, Madrid, and Antwerp. Next to the general library, on the first floor, is situated the law library and map room. This portion of the library is one of its most valuable sections, for it not only contains almost complete sets of the statutes of the Dominions, Colonies, and India, but also long sets of the various law reports and law journals and many treatises on special aspects of Colonial Law.

The practical importance of the law library has been demonstrated by the frequent reference to its contents by lawyers engaged upon Privy Council and other legal work connected with the Dominions and Crown Colonies. In the law library is also kept an extensive collection of several thousand maps and charts, presented mainly by the Admiralty, the War Office, and the Overseas Governments.

A section of the library of value to historical students is that which contains the proceedings of the various American historical societies, of which there are several long sets in the library, notably those of the American Historical Association, the New York Historical Society, the Ohio, Michigan, Rhode Island, New Hampshire, and Iowa Societies. Another important section is the Cobham collection of books relating to Cyprus, presented by C. Delaval Cobham, Esq., C.M.G. This contains practically every printed book describing the island and its history and antiquities, and includes many rare and valuable volumes.

The additions to the library are catalogued upon cards, and every item which deals in any way with the British Empire, be it book, pamphlet, or magazine article, is carefully noted for future reference. The first printed catalogue was published in 1881, and the last in 1901, since which date no catalogue has been issued for distribution. The printed catalogues form a fairly complete bibliography of the literary activities of the Empire, and the manuscript catalogues reveal the immense range of literature published during recent years. Amongst the treasures of the library are many books of great value and rarity, both bibliographically and historically. The collection of drawings made by William Westall, A.R.A., who accompanied Flinders on his expedition to the shores of Australia in 1801-2, is unique, as are those of scenes in the Transvaal and in Rhodesia made by A. A. Anderson. The collection of books relating to Australia is extensive, and contains the chief descriptions of voyages to the South Seas, a valuable set of Gould's Birds, and many scarce pamphlets. The Dominion of Canada is also well represented, and amongst the rarer books may be noted Colden's "History of the Five Nations" (1747); Jeffrey's "Natural and Civil History of the French Dominions in North and South America" (1761); Rogers' "Account of North America" (1765); Sagard's "Le Grand Voyage du Pays des Hurons" (1632); Bacqueville's "Histoire de l'Amerique Septentrionale"; Charlevoix' "Histoire de La Nouvelle France" (1744), and the celebrated series of the Jesuit Relations. The literature relating to the West Indies is extensive, and contains Davies' "History of the Caribby Islands" (1666); Burton's "English Empire in America" (1685); Blome's "Jamaica" (1672), and Hickeringill's "Jamaica Viewed," an extremely rare publication issued in 1661. The African section, Eastern, Western, and Southern, is of great interest. Here are the sumptuous volumes issued by Ogilby in 1670, containing some of the earliest illustrations of the Cape, the quaint literary hoax written by Damberger in 1801, Kolbe's "Present State of the Cape" (1718), and the works of the principal African voyagers and discoverers, such as Sparmann, Paterson, Barrow, Lichtenstein, Le Vaillant, Latrobe, Burchell, and many others. A splendid edition of Daniell's "African Scenery and Animals" and other rare illustrated works add distinction to this section of the library. The Indian section also contains many of the more important works relating to India, and a special section is devoted to Egypt and the Sudan. Nor are the smaller dependencies neglected. There is quite a collection of literature relating to the Falkland Islands, and even such small islands as the Cocos-Keeling group and Fanning Island have their section in the catalogue as well as on the shelves. Of general works of travel attention may be directed to those known as Hakluyt (1598-1600); Purchas (1625-6); Churchill (1732); Harleian (1745); Harris (1705); Callander (1788); Burney (1803-17); Pinkerton (1808); Astley (1745-7); Kerr (1811-24); Ramusio (1554-83), and Prévost (1746-70), and the publications of the Hakluyt, Navy Records, Linschoten, and similar societies. Among special sections may be mentioned one containing the prose and poetic writings of Colonial littérateurs. The importance of the growing national literatures of Canada, Australia, and even South Africa is attested by the size of the special sections. There are also a botanical section in which the chief works on the floras of the Colonies are kept, a language section containing publications on and in native languages, a section containing the chief agricultural journals, a section containing publications on trade and industry, and a special collection of works relating to foreign colonies and foreign colonial administration. A select bibliography of the last-named section has been published. A journey round the bookshelves reveals the greatness of the British Empire, and brings home in a better way than can perhaps be done elsewhere the vast amount of literature that has been written about the British possessions. The library is becoming more and more known to literary workers, and many well-known works on subjects of Colonial and Imperial interest have been written within its walls. Permission is given by the Council for duly accredited students to make use of the collections, and reciprocal relations have been established with various learned societies.

X.—THE NEWSPAPER ROOM.

OVER nine hundred newspapers, journals, and magazines are received and filed at the Institute. Most of the monthly and quarterly magazines are kept in the library or on tables in the law room, but the newspapers and weekly journals are displayed on stands in the newspaper room. They include periodical publications from every portion of the British Empire, arranged in different sections, and can be easily and quickly found. It may be stated that almost every newspaper of any importance is received, many of them being presented by their publishers. Fellows from overseas and Resident Fellows who have returned to the Mother Country find the newspaper room one of the most useful features of the Institute, for by means of the files of current papers they are enabled to keep in close touch with events in the portion of the Empire with which they are connected. No other institution has so good a display of Colonial periodical publications. It would be invidious to point out any special paper or journal, but attention may be directed to the various classes of papers that are filed in this room. First are the daily newspapers published in the capitals and chief cities of the Empire, and reflecting the political and social life of their respective spheres. The majority of these, after the expiration of one year, are handed over to the British Museum for permanent storage, and Fellows of the Institute may always consult back files on presentation of their card to the Museum officials. Then there are the official gazettes from every State in the Empire. These are kept permanently in the Institute so that they may be available for reference at any time. Many important trade journals, both of a technical and commercial character, are also received, and by their aid the business man is able to follow the different commercial movements in the Empire. There are in addition a number of papers and magazines of a special character, relating to medicine and tropical hygiene, mining, engineering, and tropical products; whilst the magazines include the chief British and overseas monthlies, and reflect every phase of thought. The magazines also include the agricultural journals of the different States, the periodical journals of the chief British, Colonial, and foreign learned societies, the journals of the principal geographical societies, a number of reviews dealing with anthropological and linguistic topics, and the various law reports and legal journals published in the Overseas Dominions.

XI.—GOLD MEDAL FOR SCIENTIFIC INQUIRY.

THE Gold Medal of the Royal Colonial Institute is offered annually for the best research monograph on some subject, which the Council will determine, bearing directly upon the practical problem of the closer and permanent union of the Empire. In addition to the medal a grant of one hundred guineas is made to the successful competitor, together with Honorary Fellowship of the Institute for life. Apart from the successful monograph, the Council may award pecuniary acknowledgment for monographs of special merit. The aim of the Council is to encourage scientific inquiry into such particular questions directly affecting the Imperial problem as may seem susceptible of that mode of treatment. The first Gold Medallist was Mr. F. A. Kirkpatrick, and the second Gold Medallist Mr. A. E. Duchesne.

Owing to the War the Council have again decided to suspend this competition for the year 1916—17.

XII.—PRIZES FOR ESSAYS.

THE Council of the Royal Colonial Institute, desiring to encourage the rising generation to acquire a better and more extended knowledge and appreciation of His Majesty's Empire, offer prizes to young men and women undergoing education, for essays on subjects of Imperial concern. It is felt that the preparation of such essays would tend to stimulate interest in the history, institutions, and resources of the various countries which constitute the Empire.

The subject selected for the present year's competition is "In what ways has Scientific Invention affected the British Empire?"

The University Prizes will not be awarded this year owing to a large majority of undergraduates having volunteered for military service.

CONDITIONS FOR 1916.

1. The Council offer one prize of £10 and one of £5 to pupils of any secondary or elementary school in the British Empire, who have not passed their nineteenth birthday at the time fixed for sending in the essays.

2. The competition is open to both sexes.

3. Certificates will be awarded to the prize winners, and to such other competitors as may appear deserving.

4. The length of the papers is not to exceed 5,000 words, to be written or typed on one side only of foolscap paper, with an inch and a half margin on the left-hand side.

5. The papers are to be delivered at the Institute not later than 5 P.M. on October 2, 1916.

6. Not more than three papers are to be sent in from any one school.

7. Each envelope is to be marked on the left-hand upper corner "Essay Competition," "School," and addressed to "The Secretary, Royal Colonial Institute, Northumberland Avenue, London."

8. Each essay is to be marked with a motto or other distinguishing sign—not being the name of the writer—and accompanied by a sealed envelope, bearing a similar motto or sign, and containing the full name and address of the writer of the essay.

9. Each essay is to be accompanied by a certificate from some person holding a public position, e.g., a minister of religion, headmaster or mistress, professor, &c., declaring that such person has satisfied himself or herself that the essay marked (quoting the mark or sign) is the genuine work of the writer named in the accompanying sealed envelope; that such writer is a member of the school mentioned and has not passed his or her nineteenth birthday on the latest date fixed for the delivery of the essay at the Institute.

10. Successful competitors are to furnish any further proofs of compliance with the terms of the competition that may be required by the Council.

11. Papers illegibly written or not complying with the regulations will be rejected.

12. The prizes are to be awarded by the Council, after consideration of the report of the Examiner, who will be appointed by the Council. The decision will be announced on or about December 1, 1916.

13. The Council reserve the right of withholding any prize and of making such supplementary regulations in respect to the competition as may from time to time appear to them to be necessary.

14. Essays sent in for competition will not be returned.

15. The copyright of all essays sent in is to be deemed to be vested in the Council.

XIII.—LOCAL COMMITTEES AND LOCAL BRANCHES.*

THE following are the regulations at present in force with regard to Local Committees and Local Branches, but the Council may from time to time at its discretion vary any such Regulations. In the Regulations the word Council means the Council of the Royal Colonial Institute.

A local Committee of the Institute may be constituted in any town or district of the United Kingdom or Oversea, in accordance with Regulations to be from time to time framed by the Council of the Institute.

The function of a Local Committee is to further the objects and aims for which the Institute was founded by diffusing information concerning the Empire, by organising lectures for all classes throughout the district, by distributing literature or by other means, by arranging public meetings whenever the Council desire to focus public attention on any matter, by watching the emigration movement in the district with a view to keeping the Emigration Committee of the Institute in touch with every development, by promoting Empire trade, and generally by such other means as the Council may direct.

Subject to the decision of the Council that the local conditions are such as to justify the enterprise, and to the Regulations for the time being in force, a Local Committee may found a Local Branch of the Institute with similar functions, and which should have as its headquarters a suitable building or place of meeting designed to afford facilities similar to those of the Institute Building in London.

I.—Local Committees.

1. Upon receipt of a request in writing from ten local subscribers (Fellows or Associates) residing in any town or district the Council may, at their discretion, by resolution (a certified copy of which will be issued as a Certificate), establish a Local Committee and define its district. The Council may at any time, by subsequent resolution, vary the district so defined.

2. The ten who have signed the request shall, on the receipt of the Certificate, become the Provisional Committee, with power to add to their number, and shall appoint honorary officers. The Provisional Committee shall, as soon as may be convenient, summon a General Meeting of all Fellows and Associates within the district. The meeting shall proceed to the election of a Committee, which shall thereafter be recognised as the Local Committee for the next twelve months, and the appointment of honorary officers. Such election and appointment shall be subject to the approval of the Council.

* These regulations have not been finally approved by the Council, but are at present the subject of correspondence with the Honorary Corresponding Secretaries Overseas.

3. Once a year the Local Committee shall summon a General Meeting of the Fellows and Associates within the district for the election of a Committee and the appointment of officers for the ensuing year, and the names of such Committee and officers shall forthwith be submitted to the Council for confirmation.

4. The Secretary of the Local Committee shall forward to the Secretary of the Institute, so that it shall reach the latter not later than February 1 in the case of Local Committees in the United Kingdom, or March 1 in the case of Local Committees Oversea, a report on the work of the Local Committee for the past year together with a statement of the income and expenditure of such Committee during such period, certified by the Chairman and Secretary.

5. In the case of Local Committees Oversea, a donation towards initial expenses of reasonable amount, proportionate to the probable membership of the Committee, may be made by the Council.

6. In the case of every Local Committee established in the United Kingdom the Honorary Secretary shall, not later than February 1 in each year, submit to the Council a tentative programme of work to be undertaken in the current year and an estimate of expenditure. A financial allowance may be made by the Council towards such expenditure, having regard to the nature of the work to be undertaken by the Local Committee and approved by the Council in each case. The allowance shall normally not exceed the sum of Five Shillings per head of Fellows and Associates resident within the district.

7. The Local Committee shall at all times and in all things comply with the terms of the Charter and Rules of the Institute and obey the instructions of the Council, and shall effectually indemnify the funds of the Institute against any damages, expenses, claims and demands by reason of any default of the Local Committee or its officers or any act by such Committee or its officers which may not be in conformity with the Charter and Rules of the Institute.

8. The Council may at its discretion, and on giving not less than six months' notice in writing, revoke the Certificate, which shall then be returned to the Secretary of the Institute, together with all books, documents, and papers relating to the Local Committee.

II.—Local Branches.

1. The application of any Local Committee for authority to found a Local Branch shall set forth :—

- (a) The area proposed to be included ;
- (b) the population within that area ;
- (c) the number of Fellows and Associates (which should not be less than 100) residing within that area, and the estimated probable increase within the next twelve months ;
- (d) the scheme, if any, for the acquisition and maintenance of Institute premises, including any special offers for this purpose by local residents or others, and
- (e) any other circumstances in support of the application.

The Council, if they grant the application, will, by Resolution, of which a certified copy will be issued as a Certificate, authorise the formation of the Local Branch. The resolution will define, subject to any subsequent variations from time to time by the Council, the area of the Branch and the financial relations between the Institute and the Branch.

2. A Local Branch may be organised with such officers, honorary or otherwise, as the Council may in each case approve. The Secretary of the Local Branch will generally undertake the duties of Honorary Corresponding Secretary of the Institute.

3. A Local Branch may make regulations for the conduct and support of the Branch, such regulations to be passed at a General Meeting and to be subject to the approval of the Council. The regulations may provide for the collection of an additional subscription towards the maintenance of the Local Branch or its activities. But refusal to pay such additional subscription shall not impair the general status or privileges of a Fellow or Associate of the Institute, as defined in the Charter and Rules of the Institute.

4. In every matter not otherwise provided for by the approved Regulations of any Local Branch, the Council shall have control of the Local Branch, subject to the Charter and Rules of the Institute. The Council shall have power at all times to inspect the books of any Local Branch and to call for returns and any other information.

5. A Local Branch shall be deemed to include all Fellows and Associates resident within the area, excepting those (if any) who decline to pay the additional subscription (if any) on account of local privileges or activities.

6. Once a year a general meeting of the Local Branch shall be held for the election of a Local Council or committee and the appointment of officers for the ensuing year, and the names of such Local Council or committee and of such officers shall forthwith be submitted to the Council for confirmation.

7. The Secretary of the Local Branch shall forward to the Secretary of the Institute, so that it shall reach the latter not later than February 1 in the case of Local Branches in the United Kingdom, or March 1 in the case of Local Branches Oversea, a report on the work of the Local Branch for the past year together with a statement of the income and expenditure of such Local Branch during such period, certified by the Chairman and Secretary.

8. In the case of Branches Oversea, a donation towards initial expenses of reasonable amount, proportionate to the probable membership of the Branch, may be made by the Council.

9. In the case of every Local Branch formed in the United Kingdom the Secretary of the Branch shall, not later than February 1 in each year, submit to the Council a tentative programme of work to be performed in the current year and an estimate of expenditure. A financial allowance may be made by the Council towards such expenditure, having regard to the nature of the work to be undertaken by the Branch and approved by the Council in each case, and the amount of the subscriptions collected within that area.

10. Any subscriptions of Fellows and Associates within the area, collected by the Secretary of the Local Branch shall be forwarded as soon as possible to the Secretary of the Institute in London who will notify the Local Secretary of any subscriptions received direct from within the said area.

11. The Local Branch shall at all times and in all things duly comply with the terms of the Charter and Rules of the Institute and obey the instructions of the Council, and shall effectually indemnify the funds of the Institute against any damages, expenses, claims and demands by reason of any default of the Local Branch or its officers, or any act by such Local Branch or its officers which may not be in conformity with the Charter and Rules of the Institute.

12. The Council may, at its discretion, on giving not less than six months' notice in writing, revoke the Certificate of any Local Branch, which shall then be returned to the Secretary of the Institute together with all books, documents and papers relating to such Branch.

XIV.—IMPERIAL STUDIES LECTURES.

THE attention of the Council of the Institute was directed in 1915 to the work being done by the Imperial Studies Committee appointed about three years ago by the University of London, of which Lord Milner is chairman. This committee was formed with the view of co-ordinating and focussing such parts of the teaching of the University as bear directly or indirectly upon the study of the Empire and cognate problems. But this Imperial Studies movement is designed to be carried much further afield into the various University centres of the United Kingdom and, when circumstances permit, overseas, and the Council recognising the importance of the effort, and the promise of fruitful results in the future, has associated the Institute with it by formulating a scheme of academic lectures, with Dr. A. P. Newton, the Secretary of the Imperial Studies Committee, as organiser. A panel of lecturers of high repute was formed last year and courses of lectures dealing with Imperial subjects in a scientific spirit were delivered not only in London, but also at numerous University centres in the provinces, viz., Manchester, Leeds, Sheffield, Birmingham, Nottingham, Bristol, Exeter and Glasgow. This new departure on the part of the Council has met with most encouraging success, and further developments will take place during the next autumn and winter. A list of the lecturers now composing the panel is appended, and all communications on the subject should be addressed to Dr. A. P. Newton, King's College, Strand, London, W.C.

XV.—ILLUSTRATED EMPIRE LECTURES.

BESIDES the Imperial Studies Lectures, the Council has arranged for the delivery by Mr. Herbert Garrison, F.R.G.S., who has for several years been the Official Lecturer of the Institute, of Illustrated Lectures on the Empire, in all parts of the United Kingdom. Under the arrangement at present existing Mr. Garrison has undertaken to deliver twenty lectures a year for the Institute, ten of which are to be in the London area, and ten in the Provinces. He has devoted most of his life to studying the British Empire, travelling over it and lecturing upon it. He has lectured with marked success throughout the United Kingdom to large audiences of the general public as well as to leading societies and educational institutions. The lectures have been actively supported by influential committees in the various centres, and the Council have received many letters of thanks and appreciation. During the War Mr. Garrison (with the assistance of a War Lectures Committee) has given many lectures in addition to those specially arranged for by the Institute, and has raised large sums of money for the various patriotic funds.

Mr. Garrison's lectures comprise the following subjects :—

1. "Our World-Wide Empire."
2. "Outposts of the British Empire."
3. "The Dominion of Canada."
4. "The Commonwealth of Australia."
5. "The Union of South Africa ; and Rhodesia."
6. "The Romance of India, and the Delhi Durbar."
7. "New Zealand—The Wonderland of the World."
8. "Ceylon—Eden of the Eastern Wave."
9. "The British Isles of the Far Pacific."
10. "Our Crown Colonies, Dependencies, and Protectorates."
11. "Newfoundland—Our oldest Colony."
12. "British Possessions in the Mediterranean."
13. "The Straits Settlements, the Malay States, and North Borneo."
14. "British West Indies."
15. "British Columbia."
16. "Round the World on the King's Highway—the All-Red Route."
17. "The British Empire in relation to the present War."

All these lectures are illustrated by lantern slides from Mr. Garrison's own unique collection. Some of the subjects are also illustrated by kinematograph films. The Institute also possesses a collection of lantern slides illustrating the physical features, industries, and public buildings in various parts of the Empire, which are used to illustrate lectures delivered under its auspices.

XVI.—EMPIRE TRADE AND INDUSTRY COMMITTEE.

THE objects of the Committee are :—

- (1) To facilitate, encourage and arrange industrial conferences or meetings to be attended by men of affairs from any or all parts of the Empire in order to discuss questions of interest with a view to regulating and co-ordinating the conditions of Empire trade and industry.

(2) To encourage and facilitate the trade and industry of the Empire in every practicable way ; for example, by arranging for the reading of papers and delivery of addresses on financial, industrial and trade subjects by competent authorities, before the Institute itself and before the Chambers of Commerce and trade associations, and like bodies in the leading industrial centres, as well as by answering inquiries from British men of business in all parts of the Empire in regard to the actual or potential manufacture or supply of goods by British firms and from British sources (see also XVII.—The Information Bureau).

PUBLIC ACTIVITIES.

THE work of this Committee has grown during the past year both in quantity and, it may fairly be claimed, in value. It has been the constant effort of the Committee to carry out in the detail of office practice the theories on large Imperial Trade, Commercial and Industrial questions, which it has corporately formulated and to which it has given constant publicity.

The most urgent question in the general domain of commerce at the present time is the need for bringing into co-ordination the trade and commerce of the Empire, so that when the questions of commercial and trade relationships between the nations come up for settlement at the close of hostilities the Empire will be able to speak definitely and with one voice. Acting upon this conviction the Committee has worked sedulously both in stating its belief and the reasons therefor in many public forms and in carrying out through its office every kind of work within its powers, which it considered would tend to the desired understanding.

Two papers delivered by Mr. Ben. H. Morgan, the Chairman of the Committee, before the Bristol Branch of the Institute on December 6, 1915, and before the Institute in London on March 14, 1916, respectively, as well as dealing with other matters state in general terms the policy of the Committee and the arguments upon which that policy is based.

In addition to this a part has been taken in recent correspondence in the Press upon an International Trade Entente, urging the necessity of the Nation States of the Empire coming to a mutual arrangement among themselves before considering the question of arrangements with foreign peoples.

Another paper bearing directly upon the views of the Committee was read before the Institute in November last by Mr. Ellis Powell, LL.B., B.Sc., one of its members, in which he emphasised and illustrated the tremendous influence of finance as a factor in Imperial cohesion.

The increasing question of the restricting to Empire firms all orders given out by Government departments, municipalities, railway authorities, and indeed by all bodies spending public moneys or enjoying public charters has been the subject of constant work on the part of the Committee throughout the year. Information and opinions have been continually collected and a systematic canvass made of practically all the leading manufacturers in Great Britain with the result that almost unanimous replies in favour of the movement have been received together with other and more practical offers of support. A sub-committee of the Board of Trade has also reported in its favour. The question is now being placed before manufacturers and men of business oversea, and when a consensus of opinion from the commercial leaders of the Empire has been obtained, strong representations will be made, and it is hoped that the Imperial Government, the Dominion Governments and the Crown Colonies, and India will take practical steps to bring about this obvious reform and so to foster Imperial trade and industry.

Another matter recently taken up by the Committee is that of the financial necessity of organising our export trade. Recognising that export trade ranks with men and munitions as a vital factor to success they consider that the first thing to do would be for the Government to establish a temporary department—as they have done in the case of the Ministry of Munitions—to organise and stimulate production in this country with a view to increasing export trade. Trade needs sympathetic treatment and organisation; this could be secured by such a department as indicated, and its special requirements could thereby be dovetailed with the needs of the Admiralty, War Office, and Munitions Departments.

Information for Oversea Business Men.—The following are some of the services undertaken by the Committee which are especially aimed at as being of service to persons Overseas, and are, so far, amply justifying their inception by the Committee :—

(1) To bring before the notice of persons in the United Kingdom likely to be interested, any British product which is characteristic of or peculiar to any one of the British Possessions.

(2) To introduce the raw materials of the Empire to manufacturers.

(3) To find for buyers Overseas, British manufacturers to make goods formerly obtained from Germany and Austria. In some cases the Committee has induced British firms to take up the manufacture of goods formerly not made at all within the Empire.

(4) To bring the names of persons abroad desiring agencies before British manufacturers.

(5) Generally to take an active part in any movement which has for its object the improvement of commercial relations between the constituent parts of the British Empire.

A detailed note of some of the further activities of the Committee will be found upon p. 272, in the section of the Annual Report dealing with the Committee's work

XVII.—THE INFORMATION BUREAU.

THE Bureau is under the control of the Trade and Industry Committee, and fulfils in its one aspect that function of the Committee's work above described (XVI.—Empire Trade and Industry Committee) which deals with trade, commercial and industrial inquiries of every kind. Replies to these, in addition to the great volume of trade queries due to the war are drawn from the information at the disposal of the Institute concerning: (a) The resources and opportunities for trade, enterprise and employment in the Overseas Dominions of the Empire. For this work there is a distribution to applicants of official pamphlets of the Governments of the Dominions and Colonies as well as of Boards of Trade, Chambers of Commerce and similar bodies. (b) Empire transportation and intercommunication. For this work circulars, timetables and pamphlets will be available for reference or distribution.

The Bureau in its other aspect undertakes to deal with inquiries of a general nature emanating from Fellows and Associates of the Institute, especially, for example, such as relate to the facilities and amenities of life in the Mother Country. This branch of the work is, of course, of most value to non-resident Fellows and Associates visiting the Mother Country; it includes the issue of practical information (not advice) concerning educational facilities, medical treatment, hotels and such like accommodation, amusements, places of interest, and the like.

XVIII.—CITY LUNCHEONS.

ORIGINALLY organised in connection with the work of the Empire Trade and Industry Committee, the mid-day luncheons in the City, when leading authorities from Overseas contribute interesting addresses on trade and other subjects, continue to prove most successful. They have been largely attended, and the subjects dealt with have proved of considerable interest. The following is a list of guests in 1916 :—

Mons. J. Renkin, Belgian Minister for the Colonies. (Chairman—The Right Hon.

A. Bonar Law, Secretary of State for the Colonies.)

The Right Hon. Andrew Fisher, High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia. (Chairman—The Right Hon. Lord Denman, G.C.M.G., formerly Governor-General of Australia.)

Hon. T. J. Ryan, M.L.A., Premier of Queensland. (Chairman—Lt.-Gen. Sir Edward Hutton, K.C.B., K.C.M.G.)

Two other luncheons took place at the Whitehall Rooms and Hotel Cecil, at the latter of which ladies were present, in honour of :—

The Right Hon. Sir George H. Reid, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., M.P., on his retirement from the position of High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia. (Chairman—The Right Hon. Viscount Milner, G.C.B., G.C.M.G.)

Sir Rider Haggard, prior to his departure as representative of the Royal Colonial Institute on his mission to the Overseas Dominions. (Chairman—The Right Hon. Earl Curzon, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E.)

A luncheon was arranged for the Right Hon. W. M. Hughes, Prime Minister of Australia, at which the Right Hon. D. Lloyd George, M.P., Minister of Munitions, had consented to preside, but this engagement, to the general regret, had to be cancelled by Mr. Hughes owing to his illness.

XIX.—ANNUAL DINNER AND CONVERSAZIONE.

THE annual dinner is held, as a rule, on May 24 (Empire Day), and is presided over by either the President or one of the Vice-Presidents of the Institute. The Chairmen of the last few years include H.R.H. the Prince of Wales (afterwards H.M. King Edward VII.), H.R.H. the Prince of Wales (now H.M. King George V.), Field-Marshal H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught, H.R.H. the Duke of Cambridge, H.R.H. Prince Arthur of Connaught, K.G., the Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, the Earl of Rosebery, the Duke of Argyll, Lord Northcote, the Earl of Onslow, the Right Hon. Alfred Lyttelton, the Earl of Crewe, Lord Avebury, the Earl of Aberdeen, the Earl of Dunraven, the Earl of Jersey, Earl Grey, Lord Strathcona, and the Earl of Elgin. At these gatherings distinguished men of affairs gather together from all parts of the Empire, and the speeches delivered are valuable additions to the archives of the Institute. Dinners are also held simultaneously in various parts of the world and greetings exchanged. The latter gatherings are organised by the Honorary Corresponding Secretaries.

The annual Conversazione usually takes place in the month of June, and for the past few years has been held in the Natural History Museum, which has been lent by the Trustees of the British Museum. The guests usually number between two and three thousand. The Council has again decided to hold neither of these functions in the present year, owing to the War.

XX.—HOUSE AND SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

THIS Committee was constituted in 1915 (at first under the name of the Social Committee) to deal with matters of internal economy on the lines of a Club House Committee, and to facilitate social intercourse among the Fellows. Some of its members attend every Thursday in the smoking-room from 4.30 to 6.30 p.m., wearing the Institute's badge with a red ribbon, to welcome visitors from Overseas, and to introduce them, when desired, to Fellows of the Institute, and others who may be present.

On the first and third Thursdays of each month tea is served from 4.30 to 6.30 p.m., and all guests are made welcome, whether they be Fellows or not. On the third Thursdays advantage is taken of these gatherings to hold an informal discussion on matters of general interest, and these debates have been greatly appreciated. The names of those Fellows and others who have given addresses on these occasions during 1915—16 will be found in the Annual Report.

XXI.—STANDING EMIGRATION COMMITTEE.

THE formation of this Committee was the result of a Conference organised by the Royal Colonial Institute and held at the Whitehall Rooms, London, on May 30 and 31, 1910. Delegates from forty-nine emigration societies in the United Kingdom attended the Conference, and the discussions included such subjects as: (1) Diverting, as far as possible, the stream of emigration now directed to foreign countries to our own Dominions; (2) Emigration generally, from the United Kingdom to the Dominions.

At a subsequent meeting, the representatives of these societies elected ten of their members to serve on the standing committee, and these, with a chairman and five members, were constituted a committee to deal with questions of emigration, to which other members were afterwards added by the Council of the Institute.

Executive sub-committees were formed to deal with (1) women, (2) single men and families, (3) children, and their reports formed the subject of a letter by the Chairman to the Prime Minister, which was forwarded with the concurrence of the Council. The request was made therein that the subject of emigration should form one of those discussed by the Imperial Conference in 1911, and if this were found impracticable, that it might be referred to a subsidiary conference or to a committee of the Conference. Eventually, in 1912, the Prime Minister appointed the Dominions Royal Commission, and made the subject of migration within the Empire one of its terms of reference, and a deputation from the Standing Emigration Committee appeared before the Commission and gave evidence. It was urged by the deputation that there should be Government control of all emigration agencies and co-operation between the Mother-Country and the Dominions. The large number of orphan, deserted, and neglected children of both sexes, eligible for emigration, now under the control of the guardians, made it most desirable that some settled policy of emigration should be adopted by the Government in order to ensure a better future for the children.

A deputation of the Standing Emigration Committee had also been received by a committee of the Local Government Board, which was inquiring into the employment of children in various industries. The difficulties which the guardians met with in emigrating any of the children under their control, especially in the matter of expense, were put before them, and the Local Government Board was urged to explain the position of the guardians under the several Acts, so that they might know what amount could be paid in and about emigration. In consequence, the Council of the Royal Colonial Institute received a letter from the Local Government Board with permission to make its contents public, and in which it was stated that there was no definite limit to the amount which might be expended in and about the emigration of Poor-Law children, but that nothing might be spent upon their maintenance overseas. A number of Boards of Guardians appear, from returns made by the Committee, to be in favour of child emigration, and the Committee will in future endeavour to influence and assist the guardians in this direction.

From its initiation, the Committee has met monthly, but during the period of the war its business has been greatly restricted, and in the past year it has had three meetings only.

The business transacted was the consideration of the following questions :—

1. The emigration of (a) Ex-Service Men or (b) their Widows and Orphans, and in this respect a desire was expressed for co-operation with the Empire Land Settlement Committee in any future scheme.
2. The emigration of boys thrown out of employment after the war, and the inducements which could be offered to boys to learn a trade.
3. The co-operation of the proposed County Branches of the Royal Colonial Institute with the existing County Emigration Associations.

On January 31st, 1916, the Committee had the opportunity of meeting Sir Rider Haggard, who made a statement upon his forthcoming mission of inquiry to the self-governing Dominions with regard to the settlement of ex-service men after the war. At his request the members of the Committee sent in statements on the points which they wished to suggest in connection with the inquiries which Sir Rider Haggard intended to make.

The following is a list of some of the subjects discussed by the Committee previous to the war :—

- (a) The statutory limitations as to the expenditure per head on the emigration of children.
- (b) The emigration of ex-service men to Australia.
- (c) The emigration of children to Australia and British Columbia.
- (d) The action of Boards of Guardians as to the success attending the emigration of Poor-Law children.

- (e) The charges on emigrants, and steamship accommodation.
- (f) The contributions made under the National Insurance Act, 1911, by emigrants to Approved Societies in this country, and the transfer value to Colonial Societies.
- (g) The drafting of a scheme for the establishment of a Royal Colonial Institute Bureau of Migration.

The Standing Emigration Committee is consultative and not executive. It aims at co-ordinating the work of all Emigration Societies and is prepared to act in an advisory capacity when matters are referred to it. It looks to some form of co-operation being secured between the Home Government and the Dominions, and it is in a position to approach the different departments of the former in all matters relating to emigration.

XXII.—EMPIRE LAND SETTLEMENT COMMITTEE (FOR SAILORS AND SOLDIERS).

THIS Committee was appointed by the Council towards the end of March, 1915, as the result of a largely attended and influential meeting of Fellows in the Smoking Room of the Institute held earlier in the month, with Earl Grey in the Chair.

The Committee has been working steadily during the whole of the past year through two Sub-Committees, one dealing with Home and the other with Overseas settlement, the labours of these two bodies being complementary to each other. Earl Grey is the Chairman and Lord Sydenham the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, and the Sub-Committees are presided over respectively by Mr. Christopher Turnor and the Hon. Sir John Taverner. An important deputation from the Committee was introduced by Lord Sydenham at the Colonial Office on July 22nd, to the Right Hon. A. Bonar Law, M.P. (Secretary of State for the Colonies), and the Earl of Selborne, K.G., G.C.M.G. (President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries). The speakers were Mr. Christopher Turnor, the Hon. Sir John Taverner, Sir H. Rider Haggard, the Hon. J. G. Jenkins and Mr. G. McLaren Brown, and both aspects of land settlement were considered. One of the chief recommendations made was that a Commissioner should be sent to visit the Dominions to pave the way for a comprehensive scheme of land settlement.

The Council have since nominated Sir Rider Haggard as their honorary representative to confer unofficially with the Dominions authorities in regard to the possibility of settling ex-service men from the United Kingdom on the land overseas at the conclusion of the war. Sir Rider Haggard left England early in February, 1916, and proceeded to South Africa, and from there to Australia and New Zealand, and will visit Canada before returning to England. His mission has met with gratifying success: liberal offers of land having been made by the British South Africa Company and all the six Australian Governments. A special fund has been established by the Council for the travelling expenses of Sir Rider Haggard and his secretary, Mr. Corbett, which has been liberally supported by individual Fellows and various Companies connected with the overseas Dominions, while free passages and railway facilities have been granted by the Union Castle Company, the New Zealand Shipping Company, the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand and the Canadian Pacific Railway.

On the recommendation of the Committee the Council have sanctioned the issue of a number of leaflets compiled by the Sub-Committees, which it is hoped will present lucidity the desirability of, and the opportunities for, land settlement both at Home and Overseas.

The Publication of the Report of the Departmental Committee of the Board of Agriculture upon the settlement of ex-service men on the land in the United Kingdom has recently received consideration. The Committee warmly approved the general principles embodied in the Report, and submitted to the Departmental Committee two or three important points for their further consideration. A Bill based on its recommendations has been introduced into the House of Lords.

An important Conference took place on May 31st between the Committee and Mr. Leslie Scott, K.C., M.P., with five other Members of Parliament interested in land settlement in the United Kingdom and Overseas. Earl Grey presided and (after welcoming the co-operation of the Members of Parliament present) made a statement as to the object of the Committee, afterwards calling upon the Chairmen of the two sub-committees to explain what they had so far accomplished. Subsequently Mr. Leslie Scott spoke on the desirability of working hand-in-hand with the Committee, and was followed by all the Members of Parliament present in a series of important speeches. At the conclusion, Earl Grey put the subjoined resolutions to the Conference, which were carried unanimously :—

1. That this Conference approves the principle of the establishment of an Imperial Board, representative of the Mother Country and the Dominions, to deal with the whole question of Land Settlement within the Empire, and pledges itself to urge upon His Majesty's Government the appointment of such a Board at the earliest possible moment; and to this end recommends that a Committee should be formed in the House of Commons to work in co-operation with the Institute's Land Settlement Committee.

2. That this Conference views with satisfaction the reception given to the mission of Sir Rider Haggard, as representative of the Royal Colonial Institute, in the self-governing Dominions, and the liberal offers already made to him by the Governments of Australia and the British South Africa Company for the settlement of ex-service men from the United Kingdom after the war.

3. That it expresses the hope that His Majesty's Government will make it possible to accept those offers by giving facilities for the raising of loans for the purpose of land settlement, and by providing transport for the ex-service men who may desire to emigrate.

4. That it welcomes the Small Holdings Bill now before Parliament as an instalment of a new policy of land settlement in the United Kingdom, and hopes that the principle it embodies may be extended.

It is intended that a second deputation should proceed to the Secretary of State for the Colonies and the President of the Board of Agriculture at an early date to make representations in accordance with the terms of these resolutions.

XXIII.—WAR SERVICES COMMITTEE.

WITHIN a few days of the outbreak of the war this Committee was constituted as a result of a meeting of Fellows convened, under authority of the Council, by Mr. Coleman P. Hyman, for the purpose of considering what steps should be taken to place at the disposal of the authorities the services of Fellows of the Institute wishing to serve in various capacities during the war. Sir Godfrey Lagden, K.C.M.G., who then took the chair, was for some time Chairman of the Committee and was succeeded by Sir Harry Wilson and Sir John Page Middleton. The Honorary Secretary throughout was Mr. Coleman P. Hyman.

About 900 Fellows and persons introduced by them were interviewed by the Honorary Secretary, and 265 commissions in His Majesty's forces have been obtained through the efforts of the Committee, and a number of persons (including a few ladies) have also secured civil employment in Government Departments. The Honorary Secretary received requests for information and advice from Fellows in all parts of the world.

The Committee was also instrumental in the provision of a motor ambulance for use in London only, which conveys wounded men from the railway stations to Hospitals and Convalescent Homes.

At the close of 1915, mainly owing to the difficulty of securing further direct commissions, the Committee tendered its resignation to the Council, which was accepted. Its work has since been continued by two smaller committees, the War Purposes Committee, of which Sir Godfrey Lagden, K.C.M.G., is chairman, to deal with such applications for service as may still be received, and the Education Committee, whose chairman is Colonel Pitcher, to assist in the provision of education facilities for the children of residents overseas who have done good work for the Empire during the War. This scheme had been proposed to the War Services Committee by its originator, Mr. W. Campbell Brown, shortly before that committee ceased to exist.

A list showing the places from which applicants came, and the number of such applicants in each case is subjoined :—

XXIV.—LODGE OF FREEMASONS.

THE ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE LODGE No. 3556—membership of which is restricted to Fellows of the Institute—was consecrated by Lord Ampthill at Freemasons' Hall on January 10, 1912, in the presence of some two hundred Founders and their friends. The President of the Institute, Field-Marshal H.R.H. The Duke of Connaught, K.G., G.C.M.G., is the Permanent Master of the Lodge. The Hon. Sir John A. Cockburn, M.D., K.C.M.G., acted in the capacity of Deputy Master for the first year, Brig.-General the Hon. Sir Newton J. Moore, K.C.M.G., for the second year, F. Faithfull Begg, Esq., for the third year, and the Hon. J. Greeley Jenkins for the fourth year.

The Lodge, which has now a membership of 140, held five meetings in 1915. At the Installation Meeting, held on January 12, 1916, the Right Hon. Lord Lilford was appointed by His Royal Highness to the chair as Deputy Master in succession to the Hon. J. Greeley Jenkins. He appointed as his Officers:—

Hon. J. Greeley Jenkins, I.P.M. ; Colonel G. M. Weekley, V.D., Senior Warden ; Ralph S. Bond, Junior Warden ; Rev. Basil G. Bouchier, M.A., Chaplain ; Brig.-General the Hon. Sir Newton J. The Minutes of the last Annual Meeting were read and confirmed.

The Annual Report and Statement of Accounts were taken as read.

A communication was read from Earl Grey (the President) as follows :—

HOWICK, LESBURY, NORTHUMBERLAND,

8th May, 1916.

DEAR SIR CHARLES,

I regret I cannot, for health reasons, attend the Annual Meeting. Had I been present it would have been my happy privilege, as President, to congratulate the members on the steadily growing influence of the Institute for the promotion of Imperial unity and strength.

When the Institute did me the honour to appoint me their President five years ago, I conceived two ambitions :

(1) That the Royal Colonial Institute might become a real active force, both at home and overseas, in fostering and stimulating that sense of Imperial consciousness, which, wherever it is found, causes Britons to subordinate all personal and local considerations to that of fortifying the British Crown, on whose strength depend not only the security, freedom and well-being of every part of our Empire, but also the personal dignity of every individual Briton.

The steady flow of applications for Fellowship from Britons in all parts of the world supplies encouraging and inspiring evidence of the desire of our oversea kinsmen to gratify their sense of Imperial consciousness by associating themselves with the Imperial organisation of our Royal Colonial Institute.

(2) The other ambition which I ventured to conceive for the Institute was that it might one day be housed in a building worthy of the Oversea Empire of which it is becoming every year more and more representative. It is a humiliating fact that notwithstanding that London is the centre of the greatest Empire that has ever existed, there is not one conspicuous building which suggests that the Empire consists of anything outside the United Kingdom, not one stone to tell our overseas kinsmen when they come to London that we are proud of them, or even realise their existence.

After the war is concluded the public opinion of the Empire will require that a Memorial in honour of those Britons who have offered their lives in order that the world may retain its liberties shall be erected in the heart of London; and I would respectfully suggest to the members of the Institute that they should use their influence in favour of the proposal that the suggested War Memorial should take the shape of a building and an organisation which shall stimulate a closer inter-Imperial trade, and a more intimate mutual knowledge, sympathy and affection between the component parts of the Empire.

Fortunately, through the liberality of Imperialists in Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, as well as in the United Kingdom, the finest undeveloped site in London, namely, that between Kingsway and the Strand, has so far been safeguarded against appropriation by the private builder, and has been kept available for high Imperial purposes. It is my hope that on this site may arise a building in which the Royal Colonial Institute may find more dignified and appropriate habitation than in its present extended but still too limited quarters, and that this building may be the inspiring centre of countless Imperial activities radiating to every part of the Empire, enriching the lives both of ourselves and of our overseas kinsmen socially, educationally, commercially and politically, and consequently contributing new strength and cohesion to the Empire.

To facilitate the realisation of these hopes, which if realised would abundantly gratify the highest ambitions ever cherished by the Royal Colonial Institute, efforts should be made to increase our membership to 100,000 or to some higher figure more nearly approximating the membership of the German Navy League, which plotted before the war for the destruction of our Sea Power. If Britons are as patriotic as Germans this should not be difficult.

My experience leads me to believe that if the Fellows and Associates of the Institute would each of them bring before the attention of their friends the aims and objects of the Institute, such an increase in our membership would be secured as would endow our growing organisation with a financial and political strength which would enable it to infuse with new dignity, new inspiration and new powers of usefulness the British peoples throughout the world.

Among the many wise resolutions of the Council under your able Chairmanship there is none with which I am in more hearty sympathy than with that recommending that the subjects of Foreign Powers who are either British born or children of British parents on both sides should have an opportunity of showing their sympathy with British ideals by becoming affiliated members of the Institute. I sincerely hope that the Fellows may, in General Meeting assembled, unanimously endorse this statesmanlike recommendation.

I remain,

Yours very sincerely,

GREY.

ANNUAL REPORT.

1. THE Council, in presenting their Forty-seventh Annual Report, are gratified to note the continued increase in the Membership, which amounted to 10,904 (a record total) on December 31, 1915. This result has been obtained in spite of a larger number than usual both of deaths and resignations.

2. The war, which has been the cause of regretted losses to the Institute under both the above heads, has revealed throughout the year under review an ever-increasing solidarity of the Empire, thanks to the magnificent efforts of the great self-governing Dominions and India, brilliantly seconded by the Crown Colonies and Dependencies and by British subjects resident in foreign countries. All parts of the British world have contributed without stint in men and money to the common cause, while at the Front in France and Flanders, on the Gallipoli Peninsula and in Egypt, as well as in the arduous campaigns in East, West, and South Africa, and in Mesopotamia, the essential unity of the Empire as a fighting force has been unmistakably demonstrated. The Council are glad to observe in the speeches of responsible statesmen, both of the Mother Country and the Dominions, a growing recognition of the necessity in the near future of a closer and more organic union.

FELLOWS AND ASSOCIATES.

3. During the year there have been elected 131 Resident Fellows, 902 Non-Resident Fellows, 132 Associates, and 4 Honorary Fellows, in addition to 325 Associates who have joined the Bristol Branch, making a total of 1,494. These figures may be compared with 141 Resident, 1,197 Non-Resident, 180 Associates, and 255 Associates of the Bristol Branch, or a total of 1,775 in 1914. On December 31, 1915, there were 2,095 Resident Fellows, 7,377 Non-Resident Fellows, 1,416 Associates (including 779 in the Bristol Branch) and 16 Honorary Fellows, or 10,904 in all, of whom 1,872 have compounded for the annual subscriptions and qualified as Life Fellows or Life Associates.

HONORARY MEMBERSHIP.

4. Nine Rhodes Scholars from the Overseas Dominions have been made Honorary Fellows during their three years at Oxford in place of a similar number whose privileges have expired on completion of their studies at the University, and Honorary Fellowship has been granted under Rule 15 to Mons. A. de Bauw, of the Belgian Congo Service; the late Mr. Richard Harding Davis, of New York; Mr. Samuel Insull, of Chicago; Mr. E. A. Duchesne, Gold Medallist 1915; and Mr. William Warden, in recognition of his very valuable services to the Institute in the capacity of Honorary Corresponding Secretary in the Argentine. Honorary Fellowship has also been granted to the officers of the Overseas Contingents during the War, and this privilege has been much appreciated.

ACCOUNTS.

5. The annexed statement of Income and Expenditure, together with Balance Sheet, duly certified by the Auditors, show the state of the finances. These accounts have been drawn up by the auditors on a different system from that which has been customary in the past, in order to show the Income and Expenditure as respectively received and incurred within the year, and the Capital Assets and Liabilities of the Institute at the close of the year. The total income for the year amounted to £13,306 10s. 9d.

By a resolution of the Council, after consultation with the Auditors, it was decided that, commencing with January 1, 1916, at least one-third of the entrance fees and payments for Life Membership should be regarded not as revenue but as capital and accounted for accordingly. Provision will thus be made for the repayment of the loan incurred for the purchase of the property in Craven Street.

COMPARATIVE STATEMENT OF ELECTIONS AND REVENUE.

"The Wonders of the Antipodes." By W. H. Garrison, F.R.G.S.

"Flying Machines in Peace and War." By Miss Gertrude Bacon.

LUNCHEONS.

10. City luncheons at the De Keyser's Royal Hotel, Victoria Embankment, were held at intervals during the year. The following guests were entertained :—

Mr. F. W. Young, Agent-General for South Australia.

Mons. J. Renkin, Belgian Minister for the Colonies.

The Right Hon. Andrew Fisher, High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia.

Two other luncheons took place at the Whitehall Rooms and Hotel Cecil, at the latter of which ladies were present, in honour of :—

The Right Hon. Sir George H. Reid, G.C.B., G.C.M.G., M.P., on his retirement from the position of High Commissioner for the Commonwealth of Australia.

Sir Rider Haggard, prior to his departure as representative of the Royal Colonial Institute on his mission to the Overseas Dominions.

THE LIBRARY.

During the year 6,164 books, pamphlets, and maps were added to the Library; 5,029 by donation and 1,135 by purchase. This represents an increase of 1,021 compared with the year 1914. The Library now contains 107,241 books and pamphlets, being an increase of 32,383 during the last six years. The newspapers received and filed number 916, or about 80,000 separate parts during the year, and represent what is a remarkable and, it is believed, unique collection. The papers after being kept on file here are sent to the British Museum. Although no record has been kept of the number of Fellows and others using the Library during the year there has undoubtedly been a considerable increase. The work of the Library staff has also been heavier than usual, owing in large measure to the many inquiries that have been made regarding questions and problems connected with the war. The permission given to Members of the University of London to make use of the Library has been taken advantage of by several students of history, who have found the collection of historical literature relating to the Oversea Empire of considerable use. In this connection attention should be directed to the books and manuscripts relating to West Indian History, presented by the late Mr. Darnell Davis, C.M.G. Although it has not yet been possible to arrange or catalogue these documents, they have nevertheless been consulted by several inquirers.

Owing to the depletion of the staff, due to the war, the cataloguing work, so essential to the proper working of the Library, has been greatly delayed, but a commencement has been made with the cataloguing of the collection of books relating to Cyprus, presented by the late Mr. Claude Delaval Cobham, C.M.G. The Card Catalogue now contains about 85,000 entries. A specially useful feature is the section containing entries of articles relating to tropical and mineral products. This has been frequently used in connection with the work of the Trade and Industry Committee.

During the last six months cuttings taken from a number of representative newspapers, relating to all matters connected with the Overseas Empire, have been filed in the Library. It is proposed to continue this practice, as the cuttings have been found to be of great service to journalists and others in search of recent and accurate information.

Much interest has been taken in the exhibition of rare books and of autographs that have been arranged in the showcase in the Library. It is hoped that Fellows of the Institute who possess letters or documents written by men eminent in the service of the Empire will present them to the Institute, so that they may be added to the collection that is being formed.

During the year two bibliographies have been prepared by the Library staff. The first, a Bibliography of Publications on Foreign Colonisation contained in the Library of the Institute, having been printed, has been of great use to Fellows and others interested in the study of comparative colonial administration. Although the number of books on this topic in the Library of the Institute is not large, it forms the nucleus of what may become a more extensive and valuable collection dealing with a subject of great and permanent importance. The second Bibliography, which was prepared for the use of students of movements for the higher organisation of the Empire, has not been printed, but is available for consultation in the Library.

The donations to the Library during the year have been numerous. Amongst them may be mentioned a number of scarce books presented by the Colonial Office; the Darnell Davis collection of West Indian books and manuscripts; a collection of 286 Imperial Blue Books deposited by the President; a large number of South African Blue Books and locally published reports of the Orange Free State and Transvaal Governments, prior to the South African War, presented by Lord Alexander Thynne, M.P.; a collection of works on Italian Colonisation, presented by the Italian Government; and a set of the Journal of the Society of Comparative Legislation, presented by Sir Walter Murton, C.B. The Council thank these donors, and many others, who have given books to the Library, including the various Governments within the Empire and certain foreign Governments; the different Learned Societies, Universities, and other public bodies; and they desire to express their appreciation of the action of proprietors of newspapers in continuing to send so many valuable periodical publications. They are also greatly indebted to publishers for sending books for review in United Empire.

“UNITED EMPIRE.”

The Journal was edited during the past year by Sir Harry Wilson, K.C.M.G., and Mrs. Archibald Colquhoun (now Mrs. Tawse Jollie), who carried on the work in the spirit and on the lines of its distinguished founder. At the close of 1915 a vacancy was created in the joint editorship by Mrs. Colquhoun's resignation and subsequent departure to Rhodesia, which was filled by the appointment of Mr. H. T. Montague Bell, a journalist of wide experience both at home and abroad. The changes in the appearance of the magazine mentioned in the last report have been favourably received, and it is hoped that further improvements will be introduced as circumstances allow. Special attention has been continuously given to topics relating to the War, and a series of articles on “Kindred Societies Past and Present” was published with a view to placing on permanent record the activities of the numerous patriotic organisations which exist within the Empire. The Journal forms the most important link between the Institute and its Fellows and Associates the world over, and is sent to societies, institutions and clubs in all parts of the Empire. The thanks of the Council are again due to those writers of repute who have contributed gratuitously to its columns.

BRISTOL BRANCH.

The following are extracts from the Report of the doings of the Bristol Branch by its Honorary Secretary, Mr. Martin Griffiths:—“In submitting this Report of the work of the Bristol Branch of the Royal Colonial Institute since its opening by Earl Grey in May of last year, it has to be remembered that we commenced business (so to speak) under unfavourable conditions owing to the war. This has in some degree militated against the fuller development of this, the first Branch of the Royal Colonial Institute, which might have been expected in normal times. . . . It has been the aim of this Branch by its Council and through its members to promote the interests of the Institute so that the influence of the whole corporate body shall be felt in the great and historic City of Bristol, and that other cities of equal population may be induced to emulate Bristol's efforts for the good of the Empire. . . . As regards lectures, there have been six of these given during the session on Empire subjects and Empire makers, i.e., one each month, on Monday evenings, all of which have been well attended. Of the lecturers, all gentlemen of note, one cannot speak too highly. . . . The lectures arranged for Saturday afternoons have not been so well patronised as was anticipated by the younger members for whom they were intended, although the subjects have been really interesting, and in some cases illustrated with limelight views. The entertainment of the wounded Colonial soldiers just before Christmas, by the Ladies' House and Social Committee, was a great success, over 400 being treated to a successive four days' hospitality that they will not readily forget. 'God Save the King' was sung those four days in the building as never before, and never since; and as each guest departed he was presented with a photograph of the Branch building, which was sent home by many of them the same night. Early in the autumn an invitation came to the Bristol Branch from the City of Bath for some enlightenment on our work, and the Secretary attended a meeting in the Council Chamber there and spoke on the subject. A strong Branch of the Victoria League is already in existence at Bath, but there is no conflict of ideas between the two bodies. A resolution was passed that the Chamber should associate itself with the work of Empire, enrol its President and Secretary as Members of the Bristol Branch, and recommend the rank and file to follow suit. . . . The Institute at Bristol was glad to welcome Sir Robert Borden, the Prime Minister of the Dominion of Canada, on his last visit to this country, and presented him with a beautifully bound address, the receipt of which he acknowledged with much pleasure. The Branch was also favoured by a visit from the Hon. B. R. Wise, Agent-General for New South Wales, who expressed himself as greatly delighted with its 'gem of a building.' The donor, Mr. T. J. Lennard (whose recent illness and that of Mrs. Lennard have been much regretted) has kindly added to the equipment of the Institute a fine full-sized billiard table, which is placed on the ground floor. The beautiful Library and Tea Room on the top floor is well used, and much appreciation is often expressed of the very useful volumes presented by the Parent Institute and other friends. . . . The membership has been well maintained, and an increase can be confidently anticipated."

RELATIONS WITH OTHER SOCIETIES.

The half-yearly Joint Committee Meetings with the Victoria League have taken place as usual, and matters of common interest have been discussed. Lt.-Gen. Sir Edward T. H. Hutton, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., has been added to the Joint Committee as a representative of the Institute. A combined meeting of the members of the Institute and the League was held early in the year at Bournemouth, when an address was given by Mr. Harry Brittain on the work of the Institute's Overseas Committee, Sir Daniel Morris, K.C.M.G., in the chair. Intimate relations have also been maintained with the Overseas Club through Mr. Evelyn Wrench (its founder) and Mr. Harry Brittain, both of whom are Members of the Council of the Institute. Some assistance was rendered to the Patriotic League of Britons Overseas at its inception by bringing it to the notice of our Honorary Corresponding Secretaries. It is hoped that both the Victoria League and the Overseas Club may be able to co-operate later on in the work of the Institute's Empire Land Settlement Committee. There has also been a Joint Committee of the Royal Colonial Institute and the British Empire League, which has been sitting (under the Chairmanship of Lord Sydenham, G.C.S.I., G.C.I.E.) to consider the question of closer union between the Mother Country and the Self-Governing Dominions and India in connection with the suggestion made by the Hon. Sir John McCall at one of the Institute's meetings for the holding of a Convention after the war.

IMPERIAL STUDIES LECTURES.

The Imperial Studies Lectures Sub-Committee having been nominated by the Council, and Dr. A. P. Newton appointed as Organiser, active steps have been taken to promote the movement for a further and more systematic study of Imperial Problems in the Universities. The aims of the movement were explained by the Chairman of the Council in the September number of United Empire, and, thanks to the liberality of the Council, considerable progress has been made during the latter half of 1915.

In nearly all the newer English Universities Imperial Studies Committees have been established to further scientific and detailed study in subjects of especially Imperial bearing. Owing to the claims of war service the Universities, during the present period, are almost entirely denuded of their men undergraduates, and the principal work of the committees has been in arranging for series of public lectures by scholars of repute, chosen in the main from the Panel of Lecturers drawn up by the Institute. Such series of lectures have been arranged in each of the four greater colleges of the University of London within which the Imperial Studies movement began, in the Universities of Manchester, Birmingham, Sheffield and Glasgow, and in the University Colleges of Nottingham and Exeter. In the University of Bristol the lectures have been delivered in the hall of the Bristol Branch of the Royal Colonial Institute, and they have been arranged in conjunction with the Council of the Branch. Committees have been established in the Universities of Edinburgh and Durham (including Armstrong College, Newcastle-on-Tyne), and series of lectures are now contemplated in those Universities.

The lectures in every University have been attended by very large public audiences, and they have excited considerable interest and attention, full reports in almost every case having appeared in the local press. It is felt that the lectures are doing something to provide the public with sound and accurate information for the discussion of pressing Imperial problems, and that they are aiding the Universities to fulfil one of their most important functions as centres of public enlightenment. The work has already extended to the limits imposed by the funds at the disposal of the Lectures Sub-Committee, and it is capable of considerable further extension to advantage when occasion shall permit.

Several research students of the University of London have availed themselves of the permission accorded to them by the Council to work in the Library of the Institute, and they have expressed themselves to those directing their studies as very appreciative of the courtesy and assistance extended to them by the Library staff.

MR. GARRISON'S ILLUSTRATED LECTURES.

Mr. Garrison's valuable services have been retained by the Council since the first of June last, when the temporary suspension of some of the Institute's activities terminated, for the delivery of twenty Illustrated Lectures on the War, and kindred subjects, ten of which are to be given in the provinces and ten in the London area. These lectures have attracted very large audiences and have met with great success. Apart from this official work for the Institute Mr. Garrison, assisted by a War Lectures Committee, mainly composed of Fellows and Associates, has delivered a large number of lectures in London and elsewhere for various charitable objects connected with the war, including the Motor Ambulance Car which has been working under the auspices of the Institute. Considerable sums of money have been raised in this way for the Funds concerned.

ESSAY COMPETITION.

The Essay Competition for the year 1915 offered by the Council to young men and women undergoing education in any College or School in the British Empire resulted as follows :—

First prize of £10 awarded to Mr. James Ivor McKie, of the Liverpool Institute ; Second prize of £5 awarded to Mr. James M. Laing, of Southland Boys' High School, Invercargill, New Zealand ; Certificates of Merit awarded to Christopher W. Maclean, Selwyn House Collegiate School, Wanganui, New Zealand ; Henry K. Prescott, St. Edward's School, Oxford ; Elsie L. Williams, City and County School for Girls, Chester ; and George B. Dallas, Queen's College, Taunton ; and also sixteen Second-class Certificates.

The subject of the Essay was : " The Probable Influence of the War upon the Relations between the Mother Country and the Dominions."

The thanks of the Council are due to Professor Egerton for having adjudged these competitions and for a valuable report upon them.

The University Competitions for 1915 were suspended owing to the absence of so many of the students on active service.

GOLD MEDAL FOR SCIENTIFIC INQUIRY.

With the object of encouraging scientific inquiry into Imperial problems, the Council have offered annually the Gold Medal of the Institute for the best Research Monograph on some subject bearing directly upon the practical problem of the Closer and Permanent Union of the Empire. A prize of one hundred guineas accompanies the medal, together with Honorary Life Fellowship of the Institute. The competition is open to British subjects in all parts of the world. The subject of the Monograph for 1915 was " The Applicability of the Dictum that ' a Democracy cannot manage an Empire ' (Thucydides, Bk. III., ch. 37, Jowett's translation) to the present conditions and future problems of the British Empire, particularly the question of the future of India." The winner was Mr. Alfred E. Duchesne, B.A., M.J.I., of 235, Barcombe Avenue, Streatham Hill, S.W.

Owing to the war it has been decided not to offer the Gold Medal for the year 1916.

EMPIRE LAND SETTLEMENT COMMITTEE (FOR SAILORS AND SOLDIERS).

This Committee was appointed by the Council towards the end of March as the result of a largely attended and influential meeting of Fellows in the Smoking Room of the Institute held earlier in the month, with Earl Grey in the chair.

The Committee has been working in a very practical way for the past year through two Sub-Committees, one dealing with Home and the other with Overseas settlement, the labours of these two bodies being complementary to each other. Earl Grey is the Chairman and Lord Sydenham the Vice-Chairman of the Committee, and the Sub-Committees are presided over respectively by Mr. Christopher Turnor and the Hon. Sir John Taverner. An important deputation from the Committee was introduced by Lord Sydenham at the Colonial Office on July 22nd to the Right Hon. A. Bonar Law, M.P. (Secretary of State for the Colonies), and the Earl of Selborne, K.G., G.C.M.G. (President of the Board of Agriculture and Fisheries). The speakers were

Mr. Christopher Turnor, the Hon. Sir John Taverner, Sir H. Rider Haggard, the Hon. J. G. Jenkins, and Mr. G. McLaren Brown, and both aspects of land settlement were considered. One of the chief recommendations made was that a Commissioner should be sent to visit the Dominions to pave the way for a comprehensive scheme of land settlement.

The Council have since nominated Sir Rider Haggard as their honorary representative to confer unofficially with the Dominions authorities in regard to the possibility of settling ex-service men from the United Kingdom on the land overseas at the conclusion of the war. Sir Rider Haggard left England early in February, 1916, and proceeded to South Africa, and from there to Australia. He will visit New Zealand and Canada before returning to England. His mission has already met with gratifying success: liberal offers of land having been made by the British South Africa Company and the Tasmanian and Victorian Governments. A special fund has been established by the Council for the travelling expenses of Sir Rider Haggard and his secretary, Mr. Corbett, which has been liberally supported by individual Fellows and various Companies connected with the Overseas Dominions, while free passages and railway facilities have been granted by the Union Castle Company, the New Zealand Shipping Company, the Union Steamship Company of New Zealand, and the Canadian Pacific Railway.

On the recommendation of the Committee the Council has sanctioned the issue of a number of leaflets, compiled by the Sub-Committees, which it is hoped will present lucidly, to those desiring such information, the opportunities for land settlement both at Home and Overseas.

The publication of the Report of the Departmental Committee of the Board of Agriculture upon the settlement of ex-service men on the land in the United Kingdom has recently received consideration. The Committee warmly approved the general principles embodied in the Report, and submitted to the Departmental Committee two or three important points for their further consideration.

STANDING EMIGRATION COMMITTEE.

The members of this Committee represent the leading Emigration Societies of the country. From its initiation, the Committee has met monthly, but during the period of the war its business has been greatly restricted, and in the past year it has had three meetings only.

The business transacted was the consideration of the following questions:—

1. The emigration of (a) Ex-Service Men or (b) their Widows and Orphans, and in this respect a desire was expressed for co-operation with the Empire Land Settlement Committee in any future scheme.
2. The emigration of boys thrown out of employment after the war, and the inducements which could be offered to boys to learn a trade.
3. The co-operation of the proposed County Branches of the Royal Colonial Institute with the existing County Emigration Associations.

On January 31st, 1916, the Committee had the opportunity of meeting Sir Rider Haggard, who made a statement upon his forthcoming mission of inquiry to the self-governing Dominions with regard to the settlement of ex-service men after the war. At his request the members of the Committee sent in statements of the points which they wished to suggest in connection with the inquiries which Sir Rider Haggard intended to make.

ORGANISATION COMMITTEE.

The Organisation Committee was created, by a minute of the Council, dated February 15th, 1915, to take the place of the Recruiting Committee and "to report to the Council on all matters relating to the recruitment of Fellows and the formation of local branches or committees not only in the United Kingdom, but in the Empire Oversea and in foreign countries."

The first action taken by the Committee was to reconsider the regulations governing the formation and conduct of local committees and branches of the Institute, with a view to making it possible for such bodies to be formed Oversea as well as in the United Kingdom, and to provide for the new conditions thus necessarily met with. The rules laid down, having been approved by the Council, are now in being, and will form part of the Year Book for 1916. The fullest and most careful consideration was of course given to the opinions of Honorary Corresponding Secretaries likely to be interested in the formation of the contemplated new branches and committees, both as expressed directly, and as reported on by Mr. Boosé from his personal observations in South Africa, Canada and Australia.

Mr. Brittain's Tour in the U.S.A.—Early last year a recommendation was made by the Committee that Mr. Harry Brittain, a member of the Council, should be invited to visit the United States with a view to considering the position of the Institute in that country and reporting on the possibility of increasing its membership there. Mr. Brittain's tour, which was eminently successful, resulted in the establishment of new centres of influence for the Institute (where there had previously been only two Honorary Corresponding Secretaries) in Baltimore, Boston, Denver, Detroit, Los Angeles, Minneapolis, Providence (R.I.), San Francisco, Santa Monica, and Seattle. A full report upon the tour appeared in the January supplement of United Empire with a map showing the places visited by Mr. Brittain, who on his return was the recipient of an illuminated address of thanks from the Council. One of the most important suggestions in his report to the Council was the appointment of an Organising Secretary for the whole of the United States, and another was the creation of a new class of Affiliated Members, composed of persons of British birth and descent, who had for various reasons taken up citizenship in other countries. To both of these suggestions the Council proposes to give effect.

Mr. Boosé's Visits to the North of England and Scotland.—In June, 1915, upon the return of Mr. Boosé to his work at the Institute, he was appointed by the Council, as stated elsewhere in this Report, to the Office of Travelling Commissioner, with the object of utilising his valuable experience in the organising of branches and committees of the Institute both at home and overseas. At the same time Sir Bevan Edwards (as Chairman of the Committee) formulated a policy for commencing work in the United Kingdom, which was adopted by the Committee and the Council, and Mr. Boosé proceeded first to Liverpool and Manchester, where he met with considerable success and support from influential citizens and laid the foundation for greater developments in the future.

Mr. Boosé proceeded to Scotland in August, where he conferred with Professor Robert Wallace, the Honorary Corresponding Secretary in Edinburgh, and obtained the adhesion of a number of well-known residents.

At Perth he was not able to remain for any length of time, but was fortunate in arranging with Mr. F. Norie-Miller, J.P., to take the Honorary Corresponding Secretaryship.

In Dundee, the Commissioner secured a marked success, and was able to arouse considerable practical enthusiasm for the work of the Institute, while at Inverness a small meeting, arranged by Dr. William MacKay, enabled him to place the objects of the Institute before a few leading inhabitants of the city who were so favourably impressed that they all became Associates of the Institute.

In Glasgow, where there was much to be done, the Travelling Commissioner found the trade and commercial aspect of the Institute's work made a special appeal. After conferring with many persons interested in Imperial matters, it was suggested to him that a public meeting should be arranged for, at which a full exposition might be given to the public of the work and ideals of the Institute. This will probably take place in the present year.

The result of the Travelling Commissioner's work in England and Scotland up to the time of his sailing for the West Indies was to add materially to the United Kingdom membership and, what was perhaps more important, to show that there was ample room in the great cities of the Mother Country for the work and activities of the Institute.

Mr. Boosé's Tour in the West Indies.—Last November, at the instance of the Committee, Mr. Boosé proceeded to the British West Indies, where he first visited Jamaica and then proceeded to Barbados and British Guiana. He has since visited Trinidad, the Windward and Leeward Islands, and Bermuda. Although no final report has yet been made upon this tour by the Travelling Commissioner, the number of new members he has recruited and the reports in the local press which have reached the Council speak in no uncertain voice of the manner in which the work is proceeding. Mr. Boosé's letters, too, are full of the enthusiasm for the Imperial cause exhibited by the population of the West Indies, and of the kindness extended to him as the Institute's representative.

EMPIRE TRADE AND INDUSTRY COMMITTEE.

Public Activities.

The work of this Committee has grown during the past year both in quantity and, it may fairly be claimed, in value. It has been the constant effort of the Committee to carry out in the detail of office practice the theories on large Imperial Trade, Commercial and Industrial questions, which it has corporately formulated and to which it has given constant publicity.

The most urgent question in the general domain of commerce at the present time is the need for bringing into co-ordination the trade and commerce of the Empire, so that when the questions of commercial and trade relationships between the nations come up for settlement at the close of hostilities, the Empire will be able to speak definitely and with one voice. Acting upon this conviction the Committee has worked sedulously both in stating its belief and the reasons therefor in many public forms and in carrying out through its office every kind of work within its powers which it considered would tend to the desired understanding.

Two papers delivered by Mr. Ben. H. Morgan, the Chairman of the Committee, before the Bristol Branch of the Institute on December 6th, 1915, and before the Institute in London on March 14th, 1916, respectively, as well as dealing with other matters, state very fully the policy of the Committee and the arguments upon which that policy is based.

In addition to this a part has been taken in recent correspondence in the Press upon an International Trade Entente, urging the necessity of the Nation States of the Empire coming to a mutual arrangement among themselves before considering the question of arrangements with foreign peoples.

Another paper bearing directly upon the views of the Committee was read before the Institute in November last by Mr. Ellis Powell, LL.B., B.Sc., one of its members, in which he emphasised and illustrated the tremendous influence of finance as a factor in Imperial cohesion.

The increasing question of the restricting to Empire firms all orders given out by Government departments, municipalities, railway authorities and indeed by all bodies spending public moneys or enjoying public charters has been the subject of constant work on the part of the Committee throughout the year. Information and opinions have been continually collected and a systematic canvass made of practically all the leading manufacturers in Great Britain, with the result that almost unanimous replies in favour of the movement have been received, together with other and more practical offers of support. A Sub-Committee of the Board of Trade has also reported in its favour. The question is now being placed before manufacturers and men of business oversea, and when a consensus of opinion from the commercial leaders of the Empire has been obtained, strong representations will be made, and it is hoped that the Imperial Government, the Dominion Governments and the Crown Colonies, and India will take practical steps to bring about this obvious reform and so to foster Imperial trade and industry.

Another matter recently taken up by the Committee is that of the financial necessity of organising our export trade. Recognising that export trade ranks with men and munitions as a vital factor to success they consider that the first thing to do would be for the Government to establish a temporary department—as they have done in the case of the Ministry of Munitions—to organise and stimulate production in this country with a view to increasing export trade. Trade needs sympathetic treatment and organisation; this could be secured by such a department as indicated, and its special requirements could thereby be dovetailed with the needs of the Admiralty, War Office, and Munitions Departments.

The Committee as a Bureau of Information.

To turn from the public and propaganda work of the Committee to the work of its office, it may safely be stated that the method adopted of dealing with inquiries as between buyers and sellers both of produce and manufactured goods throughout the Empire, has met with the approval of the parties concerned. As compared to 858 individual inquiries dealt with in the last Annual Report, inquiries have been received from 1,991 individuals, 447 of whom were from the United Kingdom and 1,544 from overseas. The number of inquiries emanating from these correspondents is considerably in excess of 4,000, and the accumulation of direct information and of increasing personal channels has made it possible to deal successfully with by far the greater number of them. In the limited number of cases where inquiries could not be dealt with by the office direct, they have been referred to other bodies whose peculiar province it is to deal with their respective requirements; the office in its turn receiving numerous reciprocal inquiries. The large increase both in the number of inquiries and in the range of inquiry made may be set down very largely to the fact that the methods employed for obtaining information and for acting upon it have been invariably personal and impartial. The wide experience and connections of many members of the Committee provide the office with an invaluable source of accurate information on this side, and the constant stream of Fellows from overseas, arriving in London and returning to their respective homes, has put the office in personal touch with commercial men in every part of the Empire. This has tended to supplement the invaluable work done by many of the Hon. Corresponding Secretaries on behalf of the Committee.

The bibliography of trade publications and the increasing collection of reports by Chambers of Commerce with the Committee's own private reports form, in addition to the personal sources above mentioned, an index to the trade of the Empire, which by periodical careful pruning and selection must increase in value from year to year.

One feature of especial interest in the work of the office has been the setting on foot of arrangements between manufacturers and buyers in regard to tentative projects to come into being at the end of the war. It is strongly felt that although many firms are now—owing to munition work or shortage of labour or materials—unable to carry on oversea trade, great advantage might accrue to them by making their oversea arrangements now in order to start immediately upon the cessation of hostilities, without having to waste time in examining and considering the markets at that date. This view has been impressed by the Committee upon a large number of manufacturers, with the result that several such arrangements are now being made between parties introduced to each other's notice by the Committee.

During the past year the Committee has gained by the inclusion of the following new members:—Arthur Bull, Esq., of the Sudan Government Railways, Wm. C. Himbury, Esq., of the British Cotton Growing Association, Philip Lockhart, Esq., and F. Norie Miller, Esq., General Manager of the General Assurance Company.

There is no necessity to exemplify the numerous and varied inquiries dealt with by the Committee. A selection of them appears monthly in the advertisement columns of United Empire. It need only be added that the Inquiry Bureau function of the Committee has grown at a rate exceeding expectation, and is at present dealing with a wider and more important series of inquiries than has ever before been the case.

WAR SERVICES COMMITTEE.

This Committee, which was appointed soon after the outbreak of war, continued its labours through the whole of the year, and early in 1916 its Report, drawn up by the Honorary Secretary, Mr. Coleman P. Hyman, was presented to the Council by its Chairman, Sir John Page Middleton. This Report, which is a document of great interest, will be summarised in the forthcoming Year Book. Meanwhile it may be stated that since the commencement of the Committee's operations almost 900 applications for service by Fellows and others introduced by them were received and dealt with personally by the Honorary Secretary. The ages of the applicants ranged from 17½ years to 74. The schedule attached to the Report shows that commissions to the number of 265 were obtained, of which the majority were granted to men who had never before held commissioned rank, and in a number of cases had no record of previous military training. In addition it contains the names of 99 military and civil appointments, including those of seven nurses. Several of those who secured commissions as second lieutenants have since been promoted, some to captaincies, and at least one to a majority. A good proportion of these are included in the number of men who enlisted subsequent to the commencement of the war. Some of the successful applicants have, to the regret of the Council, since been killed in action and others have been wounded. One of the officers killed in East Africa, Lieut. Wilbur Dartnell, 25th Batt. (Frontiersmen) Royal Fusiliers, was posthumously awarded the Victoria Cross. At least two have been awarded the Military Cross, Lieut. D. C. Alexander, R.A.M.C. (from Guatemala), and 2nd Lieut. Carrigan, R.F.A. (from Argentina). Others have been mentioned in despatches. The applicants came from all parts of the British Empire, and from many foreign countries, 75 being credited to Argentina and seven apiece to Guatemala and Mexico. South Africa sent 46, Australia 31, and Canada 19. The list is a striking commentary on the unity of the Empire, as evinced by its patriotic sons.

Owing, in the main, to the curtailment of the possibility of obtaining direct commissions at the close of 1915, the Committee, after the presentation of its report, recently sent in its resignation to the Council, which was accepted, coupled with an expression of the Council's thanks to all who had co-operated in obtaining the satisfactory results above recorded, especial mention being made of the valuable services rendered by the Chairman and the Honorary Secretary. The Council has since appointed two smaller committees to continue and extend the work done by the War Services Committee, viz., a War Purposes Committee, under the Chairmanship of Sir Godfrey Lagden, K.C.M.G., and an Education Committee, whose Chairman is Colonel Duncan Pitcher, for arranging special terms at certain schools in the United Kingdom for the children of Colonial parents who have done good service for the Empire. A third committee to assist in raising subscriptions for the Motor Ambulance Car running under the auspices of the Institute and to perform any work of a similar character has not yet been constituted; but the Advisory Committee which has had this matter in hand for the past year has throughout successfully maintained the Ambulance Car in constant activity, thanks in large measure to the energy of its Honorary Secretary, Mr. Smetham Lee. Much assistance has also been rendered to this good object, as stated above, by Mr. Garrison and the War Lectures Committee.

HOUSE AND SOCIAL COMMITTEE.

The Social Committee, first mentioned in the last Annual Report, was subsequently reconstituted by the Council as the House and Social Committee of the Institute and, accordingly, now includes in its duties the supervision of many minor matters tending to promote the comfort of members and the more general use of the Institute.

In view of the popularity of the smoking-room tea parties arranged by the Committee, the Council adopted their recommendation to increase the number of these gatherings, which are now held on the first and third Thursdays in each month throughout the year. A much appreciated feature on these occasions has been the delivery of addresses by Fellows and others well qualified to speak on the varied subjects selected, and the informal though spirited discussions which have invariably followed have stimulated interest in many matters of moment. These debates generally take place on the third Thursday in each month, and it is intended to continue them. Among the speakers have been the Right Hon. Sir Edmund Barton, Mr. R. B. Bennett, K.C., Mr. Harry Brittain, the Rev. Gordon Savile, C.E.M.S., Mr. Frederick Dutton, and Mr. A. E. Duchesne (the Institute's Gold Medallist).

Attendances on these occasions have ranged from thirty to sixty.

Primarily formed for the purpose of facilitating social intercourse amongst Fellows of the Institute and visitors from Overseas, the Committee has been instrumental in promoting a spirit of friendship between many who otherwise might have remained strangers, coming as they have from all quarters of the globe.

One of the original members of the Committee, Sir Francis H. Lovell, C.M.G., recently passed away, to the regret of his colleagues.

Craven Street Property.

In accordance with the resolution passed at the last annual meeting the Council proceeded to raise a loan, not exceeding £20,000, by a mortgage upon the Institute building, "for the purchase of Nos. 16 to 20, Craven Street, and expenses incidental thereto including necessary alterations and repairs." The loan of £20,000 was effected on favourable terms with the Commercial Union Insurance Company, and an advance of £16,000 was obtained to complete the purchase, an arrangement being made to draw a further £4,000, if and when required, to meet contingencies either in connection with the property, or for the general purposes of the Institute. The Institute has now entered into possession of Nos. 16 to 20, Craven Street, and it is under contemplation to utilise a portion of No. 20 for the purpose of increasing the accommodation of the existing buildings, when it is vacated by its present tenants in June. Messrs. George Head & Co., who negotiated the purchase from the South Eastern and Chatham Railway Company, have been appointed as agents for the property; and two sets of rooms in No. 16, which were standing empty, have already been let on satisfactory terms.

The Voluntary Assistance Department.

The Voluntary Assistance Department, which for fifteen months after the outbreak of war occupied by permission of the Council the two ground-floor rooms of the Institute, concluded its work towards the end of 1915. Formed originally with the object of providing a large number of voluntary recruiters to attend meetings in the London district, it was instrumental in inducing no fewer than 50,000 men to join the new armies. Later, its efforts were devoted to the obtaining of men skilled in special trades, and it is estimated that about 25,000 additional recruits were thus brought to the colours, making a total of 75,000 in all. Valuable work was also done by the Department in connection with the National Registration Act, assisted by a staff of eighty gentlemen, mostly members of the Bar. Besides this, it unofficially issued an appeal for warm clothing for use of the wounded crossing in the hospital ships from France during the winter of 1914-15, and received many hundreds of bales and parcels of clothing—including over a thousand overcoats—for distribution among the various depots. Among the other activities of the Department must be mentioned the inauguration of the Soldiers' Entertainment Fund, which carried on its work within the walls of the Institute, and at the end of the year was transferred to new quarters in one of the houses lately purchased by the Council in Craven Street. During 1915 this Fund provided close on 800 concerts to troops in camps and convalescent homes, and thus, besides giving pleasure to many thousands of soldiers, materially helped professional artistes who were in financial straits owing to the war. The Council feels that the Fellows, whose accommodation and privileges were temporarily curtailed by the presence of the Department, will be glad to know that so much useful work was rendered possible by the action taken in their name.

Honorary Corresponding Secretaries.

The Council are greatly indebted to the Honorary Corresponding Secretaries for their continued activity in forwarding the work of the Institute in their respective centres. The good work performed by them has been instrumental in widening the influence of the Institute in all parts of the Empire, and their co-operation is deeply appreciated by the Council, whose thanks are also tendered to those gentlemen who have so kindly acted on behalf of the Honorary Corresponding Secretaries absent on active service.

COUNCIL ROOM.

The use of the Council Room was granted for the following purposes :—
To the London Sub-Committee of the Child Emigration Society for their meetings ; and To the South African Hospital and Comforts Fund.

ENTERTAINMENT OF OVERSEA SOLDIERS BY THE CITY COMPANIES.

On the suggestion of the Assistant Secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, several of the City Companies were approached by the Institute, with a view to the entertainment of overseas soldiers. The Companies warmly welcomed the idea, and a large number of officers, N.C.O.'s, and men from the Dominions have enjoyed their hospitality during the past winter. The Institute made itself responsible for the transport arrangements, and raised a special fund for the purpose, which received liberal support from certain well-known Fellows, Mr. Walter Morrison alone contributing £200. A full description of these entertainments has been published in United Empire.

SECRETARY.

The strain on Mr. Boosé's health caused by overwork, coupled with the marked success of his tours overseas, decided the Council to offer him the newly-created post of Travelling Commissioner, in which he will devote his whole time and energies to the extension of the Institute's activities over wider fields. At the new year he received the honour of C.M.G. in recognition of his life-long admirable work for the Institute. He was succeeded in the office of Secretary by Sir Harry Wilson, K.C.M.G., who had filled that position for the first six months of the year in an honorary capacity.

ASSISTANT SECRETARY AND STAFF.

Mr. J. H. Robertson vacated the post of Assistant Secretary at the end of November last, and has since obtained a commission as lieutenant in the Army Ordnance Department. Mr. Wm. Chamberlain, who has so faithfully and efficiently served the Institute for a period of forty-three years, during twenty-six of which he occupied the position of Chief Clerk, was appointed in January to the office of Assistant Secretary, whilst Mr. J. Farrow became Chief Clerk, to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Chamberlain. Miss Hozier, at the same time, was appointed Confidential Clerk to the Secretary. Five members of the staff are at present absent on active service, viz. : Messrs. Jackson, Langford, Streader, Plowman, and Woods. Mr. Langford has been wounded, but has made a good recovery.

CONCLUSION.

In conclusion, the Council desire to express their thanks to the Members of every degree who have helped to bring about the continued success which has attended the Institute during the past eventful year—a year which has, however, drawn closer together the subjects of His Majesty the King in every portion of the world.

C. P. LUCAS, Chairman of Council.

H. F. WILSON, Secretary.

ROBERT LITTLEJOHN, Hon. Treasurer.

PRICE, WATERHOUSE & CO., Chartered Accountants.

The CHAIRMAN (SIR CHARLES P. LUCAS) : We are met this year, as we met last year, under the shadow of war. War is no respecter of persons or of parties, and at this critical time all right-minded men are trying to revive the days when "none were for the party and all were for the State." I know no man who throughout his life has tried to carry out these lines more consistently than our President Lord Grey. In his absence much could be said of his public worth and his private charm, but I will sum it up in one very simple sentence. He stands out pre-eminently as a man who holds others together. This is the task that devolves on us one and all—on individual members of this Institute and on the Institute as a whole. It is our bounden duty and great privilege, transcending all others, each and all, each for all, to do what we can to hold others together in a united Empire.

Human nature is a unity of contradictions, and the strongest bond of human kind is the one thing that breaks all ties, that is death. It comes to all men once to die, and I ask you now for one moment to stand up with me and call those blessed who have died for the defence of their country. (The audience rose to their feet.) You will see from the report that 46 Fellows were killed in action or died of wounds in the past year. I count them happy—I count happy those who are sorrowing for them as having given the best for the best, that freedom and righteousness shall stand fast in the years that are to be. These died in war, others passed away not on the field of battle or in hospital but in fulness of years, having done the State some notable service in their day. In the report you will see the names of two of our Vice-Presidents who have died—singularly typical men. One of them was Lord Jersey, a type of the best we send out from home to high office beyond the seas. I should say of him that he was a man who never forgot. Having borne rule in Australia, Australia and Australians were present to his mind, sure of his interest, his sympathy, his affection through all the years of a high-minded and patriotic life. The other, Sir Charles Tupper, was a son of the Dominions. He had helped to bring to birth the first of the great Dominions. He was an honoured link with the far past, conspicuous for courage, for fighting a cause through, a great citizen, a memorable figure on the stage of our Empire. Among the new Vice-Presidents whose appointments you are asked to confirm, I mention only one name, that of Lord Chelmsford. It is not everyday that a member of our Council becomes Viceroy of India. He carries to India great ability, high character, and experience won in Australia, and he carries with him the united good wishes of all members of the Institute. Dealing still with persons I would remind you that this is the first year of Sir Harry Wilson's secretaryship and the present report is his first handiwork in this respect. To the paragraph which refers to him the Council wished to add a note of the conspicuously successful way in which his duties have been discharged. Sir Harry's modesty forbade him to add these words, and I must make good the statement by word of mouth. We owe much to his ability, his tact, his courtesy and good temper. I should say of Sir Harry "he gets things done; he makes men feel that they have not been done; he suffers chairmen gladly." Both he and the Council would like me to refer to Mr. Chamberlain, now Assistant Secretary, to his unsparing devotion to work, which has told upon his health, and especially to his initiative in what has been a great feature in the past session—the entertainment of wounded soldiers by the City Companies. I want also to bear personal evidence to the loyalty and efficiency of the rest of the staff at a very difficult time. Sir Harry's predecessor has worked with the Institute almost ever since the Institute has been in existence. We are all delighted to see Mr. Boosé back again in health and strength, and delighted with the honour which His Majesty has conferred upon him. He is now our travelling commissioner—our leading missionary, and to judge from the large number of members whom he has recruited he has been more successful in making collections than most missionaries. At home or overseas he is a persuasive advocate of an overwhelmingly strong cause. Among other missionaries may I refer to our friend Mr. Harry Brittain? His mission to the United States required tactful dealing in a high degree, and that it received from Mr. Brittain with his great knowledge of men and his unfailing bonhomie. Other missionaries of a valuable kind are the corresponding secretaries, and we ask you to open their ranks to Associates as well as Fellows, in order to give us a wider choice. I mention one—Mr. William Warden, of the Argentine Republic, conspicuous for the number of recruits he has brought to the Institute. We have shown our sense of his services by making him an honorary Fellow. Mr. Brittain, Mr. Warden and others are bringing into our net shoals of British subjects who have been floating in foreign regions. The war has disclosed both their number and their quality. British patriotism knows no bounds. The call of the race is heard in every land and on every sea. Shakespeare describes Britain as “In a great pool a swan’s nest,” and to the swan’s nest from the great pool in time of trouble the fledglings are coming back again. Moreover there are men of British birth who have taken citizenship in the land of their adoption, but do not forget the land of their birth. Not being British subjects they cannot be Fellows of the Institute, for no man can politically serve two masters. But we propose to reconcile nature with naturalisation, and to provide for them by constituting a new class of affiliated members. Among other missionaries or recruiters you will find a reference to Mr. Garrison and his illustrated lectures. He is second to none in bringing home the Empire to the eyes and ears of old and young alike. He is not a garrison, he is a host in himself. Side by side with these lectures are those inaugurated under the Imperial Studies Movement, our very able secretary of which is Dr. Newton, of London University. This is a movement in which I take the very warmest personal interest. I hold strongly that the great want of the present day is not so much to popularise the Empire as to bring home its true meaning to an understanding people—to teach not that it is big but that it is great—great through the toil and sacrifice and effort of men now gone to rest; great in its present work for mankind, but greater far in its future possibilities. We want to tell of it as thinking men to thinking men, sanely, soberly, and in the telling “nothing extenuate nor set down aught in malice.” We want to try to bring home to the minds of the working classes a sense of ownership and with ownership of responsibility, and we want to do this hand in hand with Universities and through the mouths of the best of the University teachers. That is our aim—worthy, I believe, of the Institute, and one for which it possesses singular advantages. Among them is our unique library, which University students are using more and more. In the past year under every drawback—shortness of staff, an embargo on buying any but the most necessary books—Mr. Lewin has still gone forward and is going forward in a marvellous manner. We have to acknowledge gifts of books, among them the late Mr. Darnell Davis’s West Indian collections, some of which were unfortunately lost at sea. I turn to our journal United Empire. Sir Harry Wilson has lost as his co-editor Mrs. Tawes Jollie, better known as Mrs. Archibald Colquhoun. In her place he has secured a most efficient colleague in Mr. Montague Bell. As the war has gone on “scraps of paper” have risen in value and we have to cut our journal according to the paper. There is a diminution in quantity, but not in quality, for the moment in both United Empire and in the Year Book. I ask you to notice a supplement to this month's United Empire, with a special appeal for special objects, among them a standard work on Imperial co-operation.

Now let us look at the Institute as a whole. It is a reflex of the Empire—always growing. We have the highest number of members we have ever had—close on 11,000 at the end of last year, 1,494 new recruits against 1,775 in 1914, when there were seven months of peace. This year we are going far ahead of that and have already added between seven and eight hundred new members. The finances are sound, thanks to the honorary Treasurer, Mr. Littlejohn, and among others to Sir Godfrey Lagden, Chairman of the Finance Committee. We go in like the Empire for territorial expansion. We have taken new premises in Craven Street—a strangely faint-hearted name, but in going there we have no craven fear of being great. We have a self-governing colony at Bristol, and, thanks to the example set by Mr. Lennard and to the Imperial Studies Movement, we hope to have many others in other centres of the kingdom. Like the Empire we fight only in a good cause. We wish to be at peace with all other Societies and Institutions, and work in harmony with the Victoria League, the Over-Seas Club, which Mr. Evelyn Wrench represents on our Council, and other associations with kindred aims. The list of addresses and lectures in spite of the war makes a most interesting record. The only thing we curtailed, and rightly curtailed, were social gatherings. The activities of the Institute are shown also in our Committees. There is the Empire Land Settlement Committee, in connection with which Sir Rider Haggard is working beyond the seas with conspicuous success, and the success of that Committee is in no small degree due to its Secretary, Mr. Bulkeley-Evans, whom we ask you to elect a member of the Council to-day. There are also the Emigration Committee and the War Services Committee, now subdivided, for which we have to thank the Chairman, Sir John Middleton, and for which the Secretary, Mr. Coleman Hyman, did a vast amount of work. There is also the very important and growing Empire Trade and Industry Committee under the Chairmanship of Mr. Morgan. Then there is the Organisation Committee, Sir Bevan Edwards' special child, which under him has already been most fruitful of results; and there is again the House and Social Committee at whose fortnightly meetings our Fellows and their friends assemble in the smoking room to hear addresses, among which was a most interesting address on India by our Gold Medallist, Mr. Duchesne. That is the record of the past year. On it I invite the adoption of the report and accounts, which necessarily means a vote of confidence. We invite criticisms and will endeavour to meet them in a teachable spirit. We are none of us infallible, not even the youngest, nor even the Chairman, but will you bear in mind, first, that the times are out of joint, and no Council can put all things right or avoid small inconveniences and shortcomings which are the inevitable result of straitened conditions? And secondly that no Institution, no community, no nation, no Empire can be saved and made to prosper by simply putting a few righteous men at the top, whether they are 10 or 23, by criticising them, and possibly substituting others for them. As every man and every woman must work out his or her own salvation, so every association of men and women can find salvation only by all the members working loyally and whole-heartedly for the common cause. That is the lesson of to-day for the Royal Colonial Institute. It is the lesson of to-day for the British Empire.

MR. G. McLAREN BROWN: In seconding the adoption of the admirable report which has been so ably and clearly presented to us by Sir Charles Lucas, I think we would desire to pay a tribute to our Chairman, to our active and able Secretary, and to the members of the Council for the wonderful work they have accomplished during the past year. It must be a matter of great gratification that the affairs of the Institute are in the hands of such able and active men. The Institute almost from its inception has done good Imperial work, and we are glad, looking at the diagram on the wall, to notice its steady advance. We are going on, but there never has been a time in the history of the Institute that called more for active and earnest work on the part of everyone connected with it. The members of the Council have done their utmost to keep alive the spirit of Imperialism, and have taught the gospel throughout the length and breadth of the Empire with no small success. But an appeal to-day will meet with even greater success than ever before, and if we unite in the preaching of that gospel we shall soon obtain the results we all so earnestly hope to see achieved.

Mr. R. DOUGLAS McLEAN : It so happens that as a youngster I was one of the early members of the Institute. In those days the Colonies were but little appreciated in this country. Sir Frederick Young and a few other far-seeing men took upon themselves the task of endeavouring to make them better known, and with what success we all have seen. In those days the Institute was a very small affair. Its rooms were over a shop in the Strand, and we had a few books and took in a few newspapers. To-day we have a library with over 100,000 books, and I believe outside the British Museum there is no such Colonial library in the world. If you would turn to the names of those who from time to time have been connected with the Institute, you will find a list the like of which no other Institute of any other country in the world can boast—a list of men who have gone to various parts of the world in various capacities, naval, military or civil, as administrators or as colonists. Sir Frederick Young realised that the colonies in the days to come would be a source of wealth and strength to the Mother Country in time both of peace and of war. In those early days he and others were no doubt handicapped very much by the prevailing apathy, but thanks to them we have an Institute which is a credit to its founders and to those who are carrying on the work at the present day. I have much pleasure in supporting the motion.

Mr. J. J. K. MILLS : May I be allowed to say that I am returning next week to my adopted home, Australia, leaving behind me my only son who is now serving as an officer in the Royal Artillery in France, and I wish to take this opportunity of saying how much during my stay here I have appreciated the privileges and advantage of the Institute. It really supplies a great want, which I should have been altogether unable to satisfy, had I not been privileged to belong to it. Being also a member of the Local Committee of the Institute in Melbourne, I shall do my best to extend its usefulness in that State. I can assure you that whatever organic change may afterwards take place with regard to the Empire, the old bonds of affection between the people of Australia and the people of the dear old British land will never be loosened.

Major H. H. POUNDS was glad to learn that the Institute was actively co-operating with other Imperial Societies in matters common to them. As regarded the Imperial Studies Movement he submitted that the Institute was beginning at the wrong end. He had done a great deal of lecturing himself on Imperial subjects, and at present, being on sick leave, he was occupying his time in giving lectures to the troops at the invitation of the Y.M.C.A. He was not acquainted with the names of the lecturers connected with the Imperial Studies Movement, and had not been at any of the lectures, but scholars of repute were not always popular lecturers, and sometimes merely wearied their audiences. In the Institute there were dozens if not hundreds of men who knew the Empire at first hand, and would only be too glad to give lectures that would interest what was called the populace. In this connection he referred to the remarks made in his address the previous evening by Sir Richard McBride on the question of Imperial Federation, and expressed disappointment that the practical suggestion made at the end of the lecture by Mr. Herbert Garrison in favour of an active propaganda beginning with a great meeting at the Albert Hall, did not meet with a more cordial response from the Chair. This was not the time for waiting and seeing. There was plenty of time between now and the Winter for the Council to organise a real live programme and to educate the people on this vital subject. He thought the Institute ought to be able to extend to other great cities the work so well begun at Bristol. It showed a lack of push and go that, taking the country as a whole, there should be practically little interest taken in the Institute. If they set to work on right lines, he thought the Institute would soon have not less than a hundred thousand Fellows. He regretted that the Council were not taking a more active part in the celebration of Empire Day. In regard to the Empire Land Settlement Committee, acknowledging that Sir Rider Haggard was undoubtedly doing good work, Major Pounds wished to utter a word of warning based on his experience of these schemes. It was not a bit of use starting magnificent schemes for putting men on the land, unless steps were taken to ensure that what they produced was going to find a market. That was where the majority of these schemes had failed. He hoped those who were handling this question on the part of the Institute would not put their hand to any scheme in which provision was not made for the sale of the produce or for some assistance by the Governments of the various States towards aiding settlers in that respect. He congratulated Mr. Boosé on his work. It was not, however, the Overseas Dominions so much that we wanted to educate, and his opinion was that many more members would have been got in the home centres if the money spent on external trips had been spent judiciously in this country. He complained that at the monthly meetings there appeared to be a tendency, perhaps quite unintentionally, to ignore the members of the audience, and he suggested that not merely selected speakers, but persons in the audience should be encouraged to express their views.

Mr. R. BEWLEY, while not wishing in any way to disparage the efforts of the Finance Committee, urged the importance of keeping the Institute in a strong financial position, and with this view, and with a view also of meeting possible fluctuations, he suggested that at least one half of the entrance fees and payments for life membership should be regarded as capital, instead of one third as proposed.

Mr. ACTON-ADAMS thought that they would all agree that the foundation stone of an Imperial edifice must be commercial and industrial co-operation between the Mother Land and the daughter States. Within these vast territories was to be found everything necessary to support the needs of the large Empire. Moreover, fifty years hence the Dominions would perhaps be richer and more populous than England itself. He pleaded that at meetings of the Institute a greater latitude should be allowed in the discussion of the question of preference and kindred subjects. Almost every thoughtful speaker on Imperial Federation had thrown out some ideas, but very few had condescended to concrete proposals. It was quite possible, he suggested, within the bounds of the British constitution for the King to create a special Committee of the Privy Council, and entrust them, on the advice of the British Government, with general powers of war and peace, and that Committee could have associated with it representatives from the various Dominions, and in that way an Imperial Council might be brought together whose representatives would to some extent be proportionate to the population and wealth of the various parts of the Empire they represented. Such a scheme would not result in an unwieldy Parliament and at the same time would leave the Parliaments of Westminster and the Dominions to manage their own affairs. He again urged that at meetings of the Institute there should be more freedom of discussion on such subjects as he had mentioned.

Mr. GORDON INGLIS commended to the meeting the wisdom of the motto "Festina lente." With regard to a vast Imperial propaganda commencing with a large gathering at the Albert Hall, some remarks have already been made on the importance of maintaining the financial strength of the Institute, and he trembled to think of the reception which would be accorded to next year's balance sheet when expenditure incidental to such a campaign figured in it. It was necessary to cut one's coat according to one's cloth, and whilst the Institute was in many excellent ways spending money on objects which commended themselves to most of the members he thought they must view the present revenue with a certain amount of concern, and be careful not to launch out on schemes which might be permissible enough in times of peace, but madness in time of war.

Colonel J. BURSTON heartily agreed on several points with Major Pounds' remarks and notably as to the importance of educating the people in the Motherland. He suggested the desirability of some organisation to deal with Imperial interests apart from local affairs, and particularly the commerce of the Empire, and on these and similar topics he agreed that there should be greater latitude of debate at the meetings of the Institute. He also drew attention to the report of the War Service Committee which he considered to be misleading in certain particulars.

Mr. D. HOPE JOHNSTON congratulated the Council on the well deserved promotion of Mr. Chamberlain and Mr. Farrow. He could not agree with Mr. Inglis that during the war was a bad time to go forward, on the contrary he thought now was the time to make a special effort to increase our membership. There were growing up in London other organisations which were evidently going to be powerful competitors for overseas sympathy and support in the near future. As the originator of the Social Committee and our invitation tea-parties he had helped to make the Institute a much more live social place than it used to be, but he viewed with concern the well directed and advertised social efforts of certain other bodies to obtain members from exactly the same sources as we relied upon for ours. He thought that the Council, and Fellows individually, should make a great effort during the war by holding the invitation tea-parties every week, instead of twice a month. This was especially important during the war in view of the fact that we had granted our honorary membership to thousands of overseas officers, who should be given every opportunity and inducement not only to use the Institute and read our papers, but to make friends there. For the same reason he strongly advocated the opening of the Institute till 10 or 10.30, as the effect of the early closing was to force overseas visitors, especially officers, to join other bodies, with the result that we lost them as Fellows. While the Council collectively and Sir Harry Wilson had done a great deal to make the work of the Social Committee effective there still remained much to do if the Institute wished to become the undoubted and fully recognised social centre of the Dominions in London, and a place where a Colonial need never feel lonely.

MR. COLEMAN P. HYMAN, late Hon. Secretary to the War Services Committee, after explaining that the report of the War Services Committee merely referred to those who had actually applied to it for assistance and advice, while the Institute "Roll of Honour," published in the journal gave a complete list of the Fellows serving in the Forces, stated that he was one of those who looked forward to additional activity on the part of the Council in making known the objects of the Institute, and in extending its membership. He suggested that the doors of the Institute might very well be kept open to a later hour of the evening.

MR. EVELYN WRENCH on behalf of the Over-Seas Club acknowledged the help the Council had given to that society and the kindly references which were from time to time made to its operations in the pages of United Empire. On the question of co-operation between various patriotic movements, he remarked that he had the honour of sitting on a Joint Committee on behalf of the Institute with the Victoria League. It would be an extremely good plan, he thought, to extend that Committee to all the various Imperial Patriotic Societies working on the same lines in London, and to make that Committee a kind of clearing house for all active patriotic bodies. It would be a great advantage if the various societies could meet from time to time to compare notes and thereby avoid overlapping.

The CHAIRMAN said he should have liked to refer to some of Major Pounds' remarks, particularly about the Imperial Studies lectures, but perhaps he would have an opportunity of talking with him on the subject.

The report and statement of accounts were then unanimously adopted.

MR. HARRY BRITAIN said he had been asked by the Chairman and Council to submit proposals for various alterations and additions to the rules as follows :—

Alterations of Rules 17, 36 and 70 ; and insertion of New Rule :—

RULE 17.—To add at the end of the Rule the words " nor shall the Institute be used as a standing address for business purposes."

RULE 36.—To be deleted, and the following to be substituted : " The Council may appoint, wherever and whenever it may seem expedient, one or more Fellows or Associates as Honorary Corresponding Secretaries."

To insert between Rules 66 and 67 the following

NEW RULE.—" Affiliated Members.—There shall be an additional class of Members to be known as Affiliated Members, who shall pay the same fees and enjoy the same privileges as Non-Resident Fellows of the Institute, with the exception that not being British subjects they cannot be Fellows or be entitled to attend any Annual or Special General Meeting. This class shall include such subjects of Foreign Powers only as are either British-born or children of British parents on both sides. They shall be nominated, recommended and elected in the same manner as Non-Resident Fellows."

And to renumber the following Rules accordingly.

RULE 70.—Between the words " apply to " and " Associates " in lines 1 and 2, to add the words " Affiliated Members and." Between the words " confer upon " and " Associates " in line 2, to add the words " Affiliated Members and." After the word and figures " Rule 67 " in line 3, to add the words and figures " and Rule 68."

He said that the alteration of Rules 17, 36 and 70 spoke for themselves. As regarded the new rule relating to affiliated members he said this matter had been carefully considered by the Council in all its aspects and unanimously approved. It was put forward at the earnest request of the honorary corresponding secretaries and Fellows in the country where its effect would be greatest. Throughout the United States were many of our fellow countrymen who were sent out as representatives of British firms or had gone out in other capacities, and who were under the necessity of taking out American papers. In some States the regulations on this subject were stricter than in others. Speaking from a considerable knowledge of America he was of opinion that under this rule could be brought in some of the keenest supporters of Great Britain, men absolutely invaluable in their work for the Mother Country and in combating the extremely mischievous German propaganda that had been carried on throughout the United States. In fact he could not exaggerate the value to the Empire of having in all parts of that country as members of the Institute men who would not only be devoted to the Empire during the continuation of the present struggle but also in the years to come.

SIR GODFREY LAGDEN briefly seconded the motion, expressing the opinion that the new class of "affiliated members" would contribute considerably to the strength of the Institute, particularly in the United States.

MR. A. WATSON HUTTON (Buenos Ayres) was delighted to hear the references to the work of the Institute in Argentina. He said that his children were Argentine by birth according to Argentine law, but, thank God, according to our law they were British. As regarded the proposed new rule, he thought that there might be just a danger in connection with those born of German parents. Would not the son follow his father's nationality? It was difficult to know where the influence of blood ended. He should be one of the last to allow anyone born of German parents, either in Britain itself or in the Colonies, to have any privilege connected with the Institute.

A lengthy discussion followed on the desirability of inserting some words in the proposed rule with a view of excluding persons of German origin and eventually Colonel J. BURSTON moved, and MR. A. WATSON HUTTON seconded, an amendment to insert the words "not of enemy origin" after the words "British born" in the latter part of the rule.

MR. BRITAIN having offered to accept the amendment, the Chairman pointed out that of course the Council could always exercise a discretion as regarded any nomination submitted to them. As to the amendment itself he was advised by the Solicitor (MR. AINSLIE) who was present that there were legal difficulties in the way of its acceptance.

MR. AINSLIE having stated his opinion to the meeting, MR. F. DUTTON said that of course the idea of electing any person of German nationality was out of the question, and as regarded the amendment he pointed out that the words "enemy origin" would after the war have no meaning.

The amendment was put to the vote and lost, and the proposed new rules were then agreed to.

SIR J. BEVAN EDWARDS moved a resolution confirming the appointments of Vice-Presidents and Councillors made by the Council during the past year in accordance with Rule 6.

This was seconded by Major POUNDS and agreed to.

Messrs. Price, Waterhouse and Co. were elected auditors for the year on the motion of the CHAIRMAN, seconded by Mr. E. T. SCAMMELL.

The CHAIRMAN submitted a list of fellows nominated to fill the vacancies in the offices of Vice-Presidents, Councillors and Treasurer, and moved that the list be approved.

Capt. C. SLACK seconded the motion, which was carried.

Sir GODFREY LAGDEN moved that the thanks of the meeting be given to the Hon. Treasurer and to the Hon. Corresponding Secretaries, and expressed hearty appreciation of the work they had done. To Mr. Littlejohn, he said, the Institute was under a deep obligation, and with regard to the Corresponding Secretaries they were the backbone of the work of the Institute in the Colonies, and the Council were deeply grateful for the cheerful and energetic way in which they did their work.

Mr. E. T. SCAMMELL seconded the motion, which was carried.

Mr. R. LITTLEJOHN (Hon. Treasurer) thanked the meeting on behalf of himself and the Hon. Corresponding Secretaries. He said all that they did was a labour of love, and they were proud to be associated with such an active and influential Institution.

Lieut.-General Sir EDWARD HUTTON, in cordial terms, moved a vote of thanks to the Chairman for his admirable address that afternoon and for the excellent work he had initiated and accomplished during the past year.

Lieut.-General Sir J. BEVAN EDWARDS, seconding the motion, said that from an experience of six years he knew something of the duties of a chairman, and he thought the Institute was extremely fortunate in having secured the services of Sir Charles Lucas.

The vote of thanks was put to the meeting by Lieut.-Gen. Sir EDWARD HUTTON and carried by acclamation.

The CHAIRMAN responded and the proceedings terminated.

ROYAL COLONIAL INSTITUTE BIBLIOGRAPHIES,

No. 1.

A Select Bibliography of Publications on Foreign Colonisation — German, French, Italian, Dutch, Portuguese, Spanish, and Belgian—contained in the Library of the Royal Colonial Institute.

Compiled by Miss WINIFRED C. HILL. With an Introduction by the Librarian.

This Bibliography is of special use to students of comparative administration. It comprises the chief books, pamphlets, and periodicals contained in the Library of the Institute, dealing with foreign colonies from the historical, ethnological, sociological, and geographical standpoint. Sections deal with Morocco, and Mesopotamia and the Bagdad Railway.

Copies, price half-a-crown, may be obtained from the Librarian.

No. 2.

A Bibliography of Publications likely to be of use to students of movements for the Higher Organisation of the British Empire.

[In Preparation.]

This Bibliography is divided into three parts, dealing with Federations and Federal Systems, Governance of the Empire, and History of the British Empire. The first section is specially concerned with the Federal Movement in Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and the West Indies. The second section deals with British Imperialism, the relations between Great Britain and the Oversea Empire, and with movements for Imperial Federation and closer union.

No. 3.

A Bibliography of the part taken by the Dominions, Colonies, and India in the European War, and in previous wars.

[In Preparation.]

The Salvation Army Emigration Department is the largest Colonisation-Emigration Organisation in the Empire. Its efficiency is universally commended. Of 90,000 British people—men, women and children—directed by it to Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa within 12 years, less than one per cent. have been unsuccessful.

SELECTION, DIRECTION AND PROTECTION.

Enquirers about settlement overseas are advised as to their suitability, and only such as are likely to adapt themselves to prevailing conditions are encouraged to emigrate.

The Army escorts its passengers by sea and overland, having a large staff of specially trained and experienced men and women conductors.

It finds work for new settlers, insures them against unemployment, and keeps a watchful eye over their progress until they are firmly established.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN.

The Army is now generally recognised as the most reliable agency for conveying women and children across the seas, owing to the special attention it has devoted to this branch of service, and the exceptional facilities it is enabled to offer. Throughout Canada, Australia, and New Zealand it has excellently appointed hostels for the reception of women and children.

Correspondence invited on all subjects affecting Empire Settlement. Special branches deal with men, women, widows, families, orphans, &c. Address—
